2. Treasure Alley

Pier 11 — 77 11th St.

Local photographer Linda Fenton-Mendenhall will be featuring North Oregon Coast landscapes and seascapes in various media. Fenton-Mendenhall captures the ever-changing coastline with its breathtaking views through her lens.

3. Paul Polson Gallery

100 10th St.

Featuring a new painting and variety of oil paintings, past and present. See Polson's continuously changing wall of smaller works in a variety of mediums.

4. The Secret Gallery

160 10th St.

Presenting "Caravaggio Died of the Jello Fever." A constant brawler, he killed a man, was exiled to Malta, escaped, and survived multiple attempts on his life. Ultimately, his weakness for flavored gelatin is what killed him. The gallery will also exhibit a food-themed group show featuring new works by Tyson Grumm, Tom Giesler, Jen Brown, Hickory Mertsching, Morrison Pierce and Philip P. Marzipan III.

5. West Coast Artisans Gallery

160 10th St.

Showing amazing pressed flower art by Mariko Maita and oils by Michael Muldoon. Check out the artisan soaps and lip balm by Robin Davis along with new wire wrapped pendants by Amanda Smith.

6. KALA

1017 Marine Drive

Showing art by Jenessa Manion from 5-7 p.m. This native Astorian/Portland artist paints lush and dreamy organic abstractions. Flamenco dancer Savannah Fuente will perform at 7:30 p.m.

7. Imogen Gallery

240 11th St.

Wood-fired 'vessel' by Richard Rowland at Riversea Gallery.

Presenting the gallery's 5th annual invitational exhibition exploring humanity through portraiture. The gallery welcomes back Reed Clarke, Meghann Hanour and Ruth Shively. Each artist explores the essence of humanity, moving beyond the surface to consider the underlying. Perhaps even to see ourselves through the eyes of others.

8. Cargo

240 11th St.

Cargo is getting ready for the holidays with lots of ornaments from around the world.

9. Forsythea

1124 Commercial St.
