Bestselling murder mystery authors come to Manzanita

MANZANITA — The Manzanita Writers’ Series continues with authors and sister duo Lisa Jackson and Nancy Bush at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Hoffman Center for the Arts, 594 Laneda Ave. in Manzanita. Tickets are $7.

Winter on the North Coast means the days are a little shorter, the nights a little darker. It’s time to curl up in front of the fire with a good murder mystery. New York Times best-selling suspense authors Lisa Jackson and Nancy Bush will talk about their work and writing process. Local author and editor, Holly Lorincz, will moderate the conversation.

Jackson is the number-one New York Times bestselling author of more than 85 novels, including “Afraid to Die” and “Tell Me.” There are over 20 million copies of Jackson’s books in print in 20 languages. Bush began her career in the romance genre. She’s now a New York Times and USA Today bestselling author.

Trivia for the Tech Trek fundraiser

ASTORIA — The American Association of University Women will hold a trivia night fundraiser at 6 p.m. Tuesday at KALA, 1017 Marine Drive.

The evening will benefit Tech Trek scholarship fund, a science, technology, engineering and mathematics camp for young women.

Prizes will be awarded during four rounds of trivia, each focusing on a different STEM topic. The cost of admission is $5. Drinks and food will be available for purchase.

Trials and Tribulations of the Corps of Discovery

ASTORIA — The free speaker series event continues with the Trials and Tribulations of the Corps of Discovery by Ian Sampson, presented at 1 p.m. Sunday in the Netul River Room of Fort Clatsop’s visitor center. This is a free lecture series that repeats monthly.

Ian Sampson is a self-educated historian with a personal fascination with this story. Sampson emigrated from Australia in 1980, studied at the University of Idaho and worked as a historian on small cruise ships for more than 20 years. He will share stories of the expedition’s courage in order to survive.
