VOLUNTEER PROFILE

Shelby Mogenson

9-year volunteer • The Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific

Shelby has served as Past-President, Membership VP (twice), Head of School, Head of Home and various committees for The Assistance League. The non-profit provides school children new clothing, shoes and coats, prom style dresses for area High School girls and monetary assistance for students needing school activity fees.

"Shelby is the first to raise her hand when a need or a project comes up. Shelby cheerfully participates and motivates everyone else to join in the fun. She has a can do attitude, an incredible kind and caring heart and is a great listener. She always has an open mind and is the first to be encouraging in any situation. Shelby shows up first and leaves last. There isn't anything that Shelby can't do. She is patient, non judgmental, has integrity, displays compassion, she optimistic and self-reliant. All traits of a successful volunteer. We are so lucky to have her as a member of The Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific." - Karen Radditz
