

A musical treat from Cannon Beach Chorus

The Cannon Beach Chorus presents its December concert series, "Holiday Treats," this week with performances throughout the North Coast.

The chorus will perform three holiday concerts happening at 7 p.m. Friday at Peace Lutheran Church, 565 12th St., Astoria; 7 p.m. Saturday at Community Church, 132 E Washington St, Cannon Beach; and 3 p.m. Sunday at Nehalem Bay United Methodist Church, 36050 10th St., Nehalem.

Admission is $10

and students 16 and under are free.

The chorus features 55 singers from along the coast and is directed by Dr. John Buehler.

In its third decade of singing, the Chorus heartily welcomes new members and invites singers age 16 and beyond to join them on Monday, January 6 at 6:30 p.m. in the Cannon Beach Community Church where the spring performance season rehearsals will begin.

For more information, visit cannon-beachchorus.org or call 503-436-0378.

The Cannon Beach Chorus presents 'Holiday Treats' this weekend.

Trav Williams

Back to back symphonies at the Liberty

ASTORIA – Enjoy two days filled with classical music from local performers at the Liberty Theatre, 1203 Commercial St.

At 7 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 14, the theater presents the Columbia River Symphony, featuring Warrenton High School, Warrenton Grade School choirs and a special appearance from Santa himself. Enjoy lots of inspiring family-friendly holiday music and sing along with the North Coast community.

At 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 15, the North Coast Symphonic Band will take the stage, performing music from all five Nordic countries which includes secular as well as sacred melodies associated with the holidays in Scandinavia and the US. After the concert, Carruthers Restaurant will offer several Scandinavian dinner specials and cocktails.

The Columbia River Symphony.

Seasonal music, beautiful homes

ROSBURG, Wash. — The Finnish-America Folk Festival presents its annual Christmas concert, happening at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the Deep River Pioneer Church, 534 West Deep River Road.

Performing will be Jan Wolfe and the Bell Choir, Carl Wirkkala on guitar and Kim Angelis on violin.

Following the concert will be a tour of homes. Tours run from 2 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., with tickets available for $5 each. Tickets and maps are available at Mike Swanson Realty or Hair Villa in Naselle and Finn Ware in Astoria.

The event will be followed by a soup supper at the Naselle Community Center, 14 Parpala Road, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Download The App

iPhone

Android

music first