No Money for Holiday Gifts? No Problem!

Gifts that don't cost money can be priceless!

Giving gifts doesn't have to cost money. What really touches people's hearts is when you take the time to think about them and come up with an idea that is personal and from the heart. That's priceless!

FREE BOOKS!

Your local library has books you can check out for free. Pick a book you think someone will enjoy, check it out and then wrap it!

Helping Hands

Helping Hands Ideas:

- ☐ take out the trash

Don't Throw Out the Newspaper!
Newspaper (especially the colorful comics pages) makes great gift wrapping paper! Remember to recycle it after the gifts have been opened.

Remember: They have to return it!

You could help them by returning the books. This solves the problem of wondering what to do with books when you are done reading them!

Snowman Bookmarks

Carefully paint and decorate a wooden clothespin or popsicle stick to create a great present the readers on your list will use again and again!

Find the bookmark that's different from all the others.

Give the Gift of Art

Use your markers, crayons or paint. Create a work of art for family members to treasure. Maybe do a family portrait, or a drawing of something you like to do together. Or it could be something delightfully imaginary. Families LOVE artwork from their children.

You can make a colorful frame for your artwork with popsicle sticks, paint and glue.

How many differences can you find between these two drawings?

Extra! Extra! Caring People

Look through the newspaper for pictures and stories about people doing kind things for others. Write a letter to the editor about someone you know who shows kindness in your community.

The Holidays in the News

Cut out words and pictures from the newspaper that show what the holidays mean to you. Use these words and pictures to write a story explaining how they show the meaning of the holidays.

Standards Link: Social Science: Compare customs between cultures.

What is red, white and blue at Christmas?

ANSWER: A sad candy cane!
