

PORT OF ASTORIA & COLUMBIA RIVER MARITIME MUSEUM

ARTS SCENE

The arts scene on the North Coast has stayed steady over the decade, with some noticeable additions like the new black box theater in downtown Astoria, the Astoria Visual Arts and Astoria Makers space in the Van Dusen Building and the Astoria Design Studio in the former YMCA in downtown Astoria. The Astoria Regatta celebrated 125 years in 2019 and the Scandinavian Midsummer Festival turned 50 in 2017. “The Nutcracker” ballet by Little Ballet Theatre turned 45 this December, the North Coast Symphonic Band turned 40 in October and the North Coast Chorale celebrated 30 years as well. Newer events that started at the beginning of this decade like outdoor summer movies at Astoria parks celebrated 10 years this summer.
