Learn Haystack Rock's history

CANNON BEACH — Seaside Brewing Company will present a discussion about Haystack Rock's history at 6 p.m. on Thursday.

The discussion, led by Seaside native Elaine Trucke, will include stories and history on Haystack Rock. The talk will take place at Seaside Brewing, 851 Broadway in Seaside.

Trucke is executive director of the Cannon Beach History Center and Museum. She is a regular History & Hops speaker at the brewery. Her work has been featured in Oregon Public Broadcasting, KGW and KATU. Trucke's stories will include those of former homesteaders who tried to live on the rock, and local hiking stories.

Volunteers needed to help replant Circle Creek

SEASIDE — North Coast Land Conservancy is recruiting volunteers to replant a riverbank on Wednesday.

Volunteers will join the conservancy to replant native trees along the banks of the Necanicum River at Circle Creek Conservation Center. The replanting will restore life in the area, which has been damaged by the invasive policeman's helmet.

Conservancy volunteers spent the last three years eradicating the species.

The event runs from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Volunteers should bring gloves, work boots, snacks and water. The conservancy will provide volunteers with tools.

Dogs are not allowed at the property. Bathrooms are unavailable.

RSVP at melissar@nclctrust.org or 503-738-9126.
