

Curlew's Call.

Irish music comes to Long Beach Peninsula

LONG BEACH — The Peninsula Arts Center presents Curlew's Call 7 p.m. Saturday at 504 Pacific Ave. N.

Curlew's Call plays at Irish pubs, festivals and private events around the Northwest. The band's known for its rollicking songs and tunes.

In 2019, the band was one of the most popular performers at the Coastal Celtic Music Festival, held on the Long Beach Peninsula.

The concert will benefit the Long Beach Peninsula Acoustic Music Foundation, a charity.

Admission is $15 at the door. Tickets can be purchased online through Brown Paper Tickets or by phone at 360-901-0962.

Scandinavia comes to the Liberty Theatre

ASTORIA — Liberty Theatre will present the 45th Parallel Universe Orchestra on Friday at 7 p.m.

Tickets for the concert, titled Smorgasbord, cost $30 for reserved seats and $25 for season ticket holders. The concert will be held at the Theatre, 1203 Commercial St. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Attendees will experience Scandinavian music under the helm of orchestra's founder, Greg Ewer. The concert will feature two of Scandinavia's most popular music: the hardanger fiddle and the nyckelharpa.

The concert's music will feature Scandinavian folk songs, as well as compositions by Scandinavian composers Carl Nielsen and Edvard Grieg.

After the concert, a reception with the orchestra will be held in the theatre's McTavish Room.

Attendance is free for students under age 18. Tickets are available at libertyastoria.org.

The 'Thoroughly Modern Millie' cast poses ahead of the show, which is a comedy.

Warrenton High School presents 'Thoroughly Modern Millie'

WARRENTON — Warrenton High School's musical, "Thoroughly Modern Millie" is available to audiences at 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

The 16-student cast will tell the story of Millie, a young woman from Kansas, who travels to New York in 1922. Millie hopes to find a new life for herself, with a job as a secretary and a wealthy husband. Millie's plan doesn't work out though, leading to a show featuring flap dancers, crime and controversy.

Admission is $8. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. During intermission, Warrenton Schools Foundation will hold its annual ice cream social.

Students paint the set of 'Thoroughly Modern Millie.'

Download The App

iPhone

Android

music first