Two of downtown Astoria's art venues are changing locations. The Oscar de' Masi Studio recently moved to Commercial Street. In the coming weeks, retailer Luminari Arts will move to Duane Street.

Toward the end of 2019, painter Oscar de' Masi moved his studio from its original location off of 11th and Duane streets. The studio is now housed in 1145 Commercial St., which used to be clothing boutique De La Salandra.

"This is a better location," said Patricia de' Masi, Oscar's wife.
