

AMERICANA MUSIC COMES TO LONG BEACH

LONG BEACH — The Peninsula Arts Center will present Tony Furtado and Luke Price on Saturday at 7 p.m.

Furtado is a soulful singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist. He plays the banjo, cello-banjo, slide guitar and baritone ukulele.

Price is also a multi-instrumentalist. He's known for his rhythm and technical skills.

The two will play classic Americana roots music, as well as modern songs.

Admission is $20. The concert will be held at the center, 504 Pacific Ave. N. Tickets are available online at brownpapertickets.com or by calling 360-901-0962. Concerts benefit the Long Beach Peninsula Acoustic Music Foundation.

Clatsop Cruise Hosts seeks volunteers

ASTORIA — Clatsop Cruise Hosts is looking for volunteers to help with the 2020 cruise ship season.

Information sessions will be held Feb. 12 and 19 at 2 p.m. in 3 Cups Coffee House, 279 W Marine Drive.

The first cruise ship of the 2020 season will arrive March 31. A total of 35 ships will visit Astoria in 2020. Between 50 and 70 volunteers are needed to greet guests from each ship. Volunteers educate visitors about local history, culture and activities.

More information is available at clatsop-cruisehosts.org.

Local organizations seek environment-focused artists

ASTORIA — Recology Western Oregon and Astoria Visual Arts will host the organizations' fifth Coastal Oregon Artist Residency Program this spring.

Two five-month residencies are available. The first will start on May 1 and the second on Sept. 30. Artists can apply for the residencies until March 31 at astoriavisualarts.org.

The two organizations want artists to focus on natural resources and the environment with their art. All styles and mediums are welcome but applicants should work with recycled materials.

Chosen artists should live in Clatsop, Tillamook, Pacific or Wahkiakum counties. Applicants shouldn't live more than one hour's driving distance from the RWO Astoria Transfer Station.

Jeremy Furnish and Drea Rose Frost were the 2019 resident artists.
