ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

LILLI TAYLOR
Seaside

In two games against Banks in a three-day span, Taylor scored a combined 29 points with 17 rebounds and 13 assists, as the Gulls and Braves split two basketball games. In a 47-22 win to finish league play, she had 14 points, 12 rebounds, eight assists and three steals, and in a league playoff loss two days later, Taylor had 15 points, five boards and five assists.

EVEREST SIBONY
Seaside

In a 58-51 win over Banks Feb. 20, the Gulls clinched a co-league basketball championship thanks to 12 points off the bench from Sibony, Seaside's sophomore point guard of the future. Sibony hit a 3-pointer to end the first quarter, scored six points in the second, then connected on another trey in the third quarter that gave Seaside a 35-26 lead.

Naselle's Lindstrom to play in Shrine game

The Astorian

Naselle's Ethan Lindstrom has been selected to play in the Shriners' East-West football game this summer in Yakima, Washington. Players from Washington high schools in the WIAA 2A-1B divisions were selected to participate. The game will be played at East Valley High School at 1 p.m., June 20. The senior quarterback and co-captain led the Comets through an unbeaten season to the 1B state championship game in December, losing to defending state champion Odessa. At season end, Lindstrom was named to the Associated Press 1B All-State first team as quarterback, kicker and line-backer. Teammates Fa'aoso Tutu'u and Joey Strange were also named to the AP first team.

Every Naselle boys and girls starter earns all-league

The Astorian

The Naselle basketball teams swept the recent Columbia Valley all-league awards, announced last week. All five starters for both the Naselle boys and girls teams were selected all-league, and the Comets also had two players named as league Players of the Year. On the boys' side, Naselle senior Ethan Lindstrom was selected league MVP and Naselle's Bill Olsen was Coach of the Year. Comet senior Corey Gregory and junior Kolby Glenn took two of the five places on the first team. Senior Chase Haataia and junior Jimmy Strange were named to the second team. For the girls, senior Jackie Steenerson shared the MVP award with Leah Pearson, a sophomore from Columbia Adventist Academy of Battle Ground, Washington. Comet sophomore Peyton Dalton was named to the first team. Three freshmen — Kaylin Shriver, Lauren Katyryniuk and Bella Colombo — took three of the five places on the second team.
