Two Loggers earn all-state honors

The Astorian

While the state champions of Toledo swept the individual awards, the 33 members of the 2A all-state boys basketball team included two Knappa Loggers.

The all-state team was voted on by 2A coaches and released earlier this month.

Knappa junior Devin Hoover was selected to the second team, and senior Logger Mason Westerholm made honorable mention.

For winning its first state title in school history, Toledo senior Conner Marchant was named "Oregon Mr. Basketball" (Player of the Year), while Toledo's Eddie Townsend was Coach of the Year.
