

SEASIDE — The Seaside First Saturday Art Walk, scheduled for May 2, will be held online. Exhibits will be available for viewing through social media.

SunRose Gallery

Featuring 1800s-era pique assiette mosaic China from the 1800s by gallery owner Cathy Tippin; handmade spirit dolls by Jan Barber; sand dollars, shells and pebbles art by Mimi Cernyar Fox; fiber art by Robin Montero; and cut-up credit card mosaic art by Mari Cardinal Walker. To view the art, contact the gallery at cathytippin@gmail.com, 503-717-2685 or facebook.com/SunRoseGallery/.

Fairweather House and Gallery

Featuring art by Jo Pomeroy-Crockett, Christine Downs, Bev Drew Kindley, Dorota Haber-Lehigh, Gretha Lindwood, Melissa Jander, Carmela Newstead and Zifen Qian. The work includes botanical studies, realism, abstraction and surrealism. Art can be purchased and picked up by curbside appointment or delivered free locally. To view the art, contact the gallery at fairweatherkd@gmail.com, fairweatherhouseandgallery.com or facebook.com/fairweatherhouseandgallery/.

Beach Books Art-in-the-Loft Gallery

Featuring a mixed media showcase from artists April Hoff and Debbie Wharton Estes, two Pacific Northwest artists who mix up collages, digital imagery, acrylics, alcohol inks, fabrics and clay. To view the art, contact the gallery at facebook.com/Beachbooks37/ or beachbooks37.com.

LEFT: Pottery created by Debbie Wharton Estes is on display at the Beach Books Art-in-the-Loft Gallery. MIDDLE: Spirit dolls created by Jan Barber will be showcased at SunRose Gallery. RIGHT: Oil paintings by Melissa Jander will be shown by Fairweather House and Gallery.

Download The App

iPhone

Android

music first