The contest's winner is Julia Triezenberg, of Astoria, followed by Jan Bono, of Long Beach, Washington, in second place, and Lois Larson, of Seaside, in third place.

Triezenberg sent in a photo of herself with her ukulele and plants.

"In true millennial fashion, I have been learning new tunes on my ukulele while my plant babies soak up some sun," she said.

Bono shared a photo of a birthday party she held for her cat 'Theo.'

"I threw a COVID Birthday Party (to which no one was invited) for my cat Theo, now 6, and shared the silliness on Facebook to rave reviews," Bono said.

Larson shared an image of herself with holiday stockings she made for her future grandchildren.

"Over the last 50+ years I have made about 75 Christmas stockings for family members and a few friends," she said.

The winners will receive a gift certificate to T. Paul's Urban Cafe. Gift cards are funded through a grant by Northwest Oregon Works and Oregon Coast Today.
