

OBITUARIES

Leon Francis Posey
Molalla
April 29, 1957 — April 28, 2020

Leon Francis Posey was born to Lloyd and Luella (Zaspel) Posey on April 29, 1957, in Portland, Oregon. He went on to be with the Lord on April 28, 2020.

Leon was the youngest of seven siblings. His family moved from Portland to Seaside, Oregon, in 1969, where he grew up and attended public schools.

He met and married his first wife, Debbie Cain, in 1975. They were married for 25 years and raised five children together in Astoria.

Leon worked as a skilled millwright at Weyerhaeuser lumber mill in Warrenton for over 10 years. He was undoubtedly a hard-working man and loved spending time with his family and close friends, fishing, hunting and camping.

Leon moved from the coast to Molalla, Oregon, in 1999, after accepting a job with Interfor mill. Shortly thereafter, Leon met his second wife, Jamie (Graham-Goodman). The two soon became inseparable, and married in the fall of 2003.

Leon and Jamie made many memories together. Some of their favorite times were spent at the Molalla River on a hot summer day, fishing up at Olallie Lake or traveling to visit children and grandchildren all over Oregon, Washington state and Idaho.

The two also enjoyed bird watching from their patio/garden. They enjoyed listening to music, cooking great food and visiting the casinos at the beach. Most of all, they loved spending time with each other and their families.

Leon Posey

Leon and Jamie were married for 13 years before her passing in 2016 from lung cancer. Leon has so many friends and family — far too many to list. He was a good man, he was dearly loved and will be deeply missed by all.

Leon is preceded in death by his wife, Jamie; his parents, Lloyd and Luella; and siblings, Richard (Dick) Arnold, Terry Arnold and John Posey.

He is survived by his older siblings, Judith Dewane, Ray Posey, Pete Posey and his sister-in-law and brother in-law; his five children, James Posey, Michael Posey, Rebecca Bryson, Deanna Posey and Laura Starr; and two stepchildren, Jessy and Tommy. Leon had many nieces and nephews, and 26 grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at a future date, when large gatherings are allowed. Family and friends will be notified at that time.

“Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.” — 2 Corinthians 4:16-18

Elgie Leon Hoyt
Warrenton
June 28, 1950 — May 21, 2020

On May 21, 2020, Elgie Leon Hoyt peacefully passed away in Portland, Oregon, at the age of 69.

Elgie was born June 28, 1950, in Plum City, Wisconsin, to Elgie Sr. and Mae (Lester) Hoyt.

At the age of 12, Elgie’s family moved to White Sulphur Springs, Montana, where Elgie attended school and graduated in 1968. During his high school years, Elgie worked nights at the local sawmill, and after graduation, began driving a semitruck for Carl Fairchild. Shortly after, Elgie bought his first of many semitrucks.

On July 30, 1988, Elgie married Pat (Teller) Davis, and together they ran Elgie Hoyt Trucking. From April 2001 to 2004, Elgie and Pat ventured to Alaska, hauling pipe and supplies from Fairbanks to Pruhdoe Bay, while also continuing to run their logging business in Montana.

Due to the declining lumber economy in Montana, Elgie and Pat moved to Oregon in 2004, and began hauling logs for Nygaard Logging in Warrenton, Oregon. Elgie found a love for driving log trucks in Oregon because of “long, heavy logs, very little snow and not having to use tire chains.”

Elgie’s driving career spanned 51 years, during which he shared his love and knowledge of truck driving. He encouraged and taught numerous people to drive log trucks. Elgie was always ready and willing to lend a helping hand and give advice.

Elgie Hoyt

Elgie had a love for animals, and had an especially important place in his heart for his and Pat’s two dogs, “Missy” and “Cujo,” and cat, “Clipper.” Elgie enjoyed going on drives with his “Tough Old Bird” (Pat) to look at wildlife and nature.

There are no words to truly explain how great of a man Elgie was, and how deeply he will be missed. We will always remember his chuckle and lopsided grin.

We will love and miss Elgie always.

Elgie was preceded in death by his parents, Elgie Sr. and Mae Hoyt; brother, Gary Hoyt; nephew, Johley Hoyt; stepdaughter, Tammy Porter; and sisters-in-law, Cindy Hoyt and Diane Felder.

Elgie is survived by his wife, Pat; daughter, Shonda (Jeff) Moon; brothers, Tom, Russell and Terry (Tana) Hoyt; stepdaughter, Cheryl (John) West; granddaughters, Penelope Moon and Christie (Jason) Barker; grandsons, Josh Deal, Matt (Misty) Deal, Derrick (Kaitlyn) West and Tyler (Brooke) West; great-grandchildren, Max and Bridger Barker, Trevor, Makayla and Emily Deal and Echo Deal; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A graveside service will be held at a later date.

August Schulbach
Astoria
Sept. 4, 1926 — June 5, 2020

August “Gus” Schulbach passed away on June 5, 2020, in St. Helens, Oregon. He was 93 years old.

He was born on Sept. 4, 1926, to August and Lempi Schulbach, and lived in Astoria, Oregon, his entire life.

He attended elementary school at the Battle Creek School in Youngs River, Capt. Robert Gray School in Astoria for ninth grade and then Astoria High School, where he graduated in 1944.

He then entered the Army right out of high school, and was deployed to both the Philippines and Japan. Upon his return to the states in 1946, he then went on to Oregon State University, where he graduated in 1951 with a degree in agricultural engineering.

He went to work for Oregon Fur Producers for a few years. Then he went to Sudan, Africa, to work as an agricultural engineer until returning to the U.S. in 1958 when he bought the family farm in Youngs River. He and his wife Caroline “Mickey” Schulbach raised their family there until they were divorced in 1979.

He worked as a logger for many different outfits, the largest and longest being Crown Zellerbach, until he retired in 1993.

August Schulbach

In 1981 he married Eve West, and lived with her until her death in 1990.

August loved square dancing and working in his very large garden. Any time spent in the outdoors was time well spent for him. He was an extraordinary timber faller, and could land just about any tree just about anywhere.

He is survived by his daughter, Sally, and her husband, John Hurt. Sally took care of him for the last five years of his life, after he suffered a severe and debilitating stroke in 2015. He is also survived by his two grandchildren, Ashley Yoder and Ryan Hurt; one great-grandson, Caleb Yoder; and a brother, Adolph Schulbach.

He was preceded in death by both former spouses; his siblings, Ernie, Roy, Herb, Joel and Sylvia; and his son, Scott.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Astoria Senior Center, where he loved to spend time catching up with friends.

A family graveside service will be held at Lewis & Clark Cemetery, followed by a public memorial service at a later date in Astoria.

Ocean View Funeral & Cremation Service of Astoria is in charge of the arrangements.

Marilyn Jean Anderson
Brownsmead
Dec. 1, 1934 — June 10, 2020

Marilyn Jean Anderson, 85, of Brownsmead, was born Dec. 1, 1934, in Everett, Washington, to Harold and Inez Juanita James Tozer. Marilyn passed away June 10, 2020.

Marilyn graduated from Knappa High School, and then adventured to Portland, where she was employed by Hyster Forklift in a secretarial role.

While living in Portland she dated the love of her life, Elton Albert Anderson. They married Dec. 3, 1955, at the Westport, Oregon, Community Church. Elton preceded her in death in 2015.

Once they were married, Marilyn helped run the Anderson family farm in Brownsmead that dated back to 1889, and was later honored as an Oregon Century Farm. While working the family farm, Marilyn also held roles at Pillsbury Flour Mill, City Lumber, and her last 33 years of employment were spent at Autio Co. Not only did Marilyn enjoy working at Autio Co. she also felt blessed to call the people at Autio Co. friends.

Marilyn had a passion for Clatsop County history, Girl Scout troop leadership, nature, clam digging and working in her vegetable and flower gardens. She also enjoyed traveling the world with Elton.

Marilyn Anderson

Their favorite vacation spot was Mazatlan, Mexico, where they escaped every January for over 30 years.

Survivors include her sister, Arlene Luoto, of Carlton, Oregon; a brother, Richard Gilpen, of West Linn, Oregon; a brother-in-law, Richard Anderson, of Astoria; nieces, Marie Anderson Randall, of San Ramon, California, Susan Anderson Schaffrinna, of Yakima, Washington, and Lori Anderson, of Longview, Washington; nephews, Gary Anderson, of Astoria, Oregon, Robert A. Luoto, of Carlton, Oregon, John Luoto, of Tillamook, Oregon, Dan Luoto, of Bend, Oregon, and Randy Luoto, of Carlton, Oregon.

A special thanks to Glenda Ivanoff and Richard Anderson for their love and support during her battle with cancer.

Graveside services will be held Wednesday at 1 p.m. at Ocean View Cemetery in Warrenton, Oregon.

Memorial contributions may be given to the nonprofit organization of your choice.

A reception honoring Marilyn will be scheduled at a later date.

Caldwell’s Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Please sign the online guest book at caldwellsmortuary.com
