

Warrenton art contest calls for email entries

WARRENTON — Spruce Up Warrenton is hosting a second “Whimsical Warrenton Art Contest,” open to Warrenton and Hammond residents.

The contest is open until 5 p.m. Sunday. Entries should be sent to spruceup-warrenton@gmail.com.

The contest theme is “unity in our community.” Sculptures, textiles, pottery, jewelry and other three-dimensional art are eligible for entry.

The contest’s entries will be added to a photo album on the Spruce Up Warrenton Facebook page. Winners will be decided based on how many “likes” the photo receives by 5 p.m. Sunday. Reactions on shared posts will not count.

The contest’s winner will be given a $25 gift certificate to a Warrenton or Hammond business of their choice.

When entering, include your first and last name, mailing address and a photo of your creation. Photo files should be 40 MB or smaller. Only JPG and PNG files are allowed. Individuals can send in multiple entries but each entry should be sent in its own email.

College art show hosted online

ASTORIA — Clatsop Community College’s annual student art show will be available to view online through Aug. 31.

The show is split into two categories: 3D and 2D art. The 3D gallery is available to view at bit.ly/ccstudentartshow. The 2D art can be seen at bit.ly/cc2dart.

The show is an annual juried event that showcases student work in disciplines including graphic arts, design, drawing, painting, ceramics, photography and print-making. This year’s juror is Annie Eskelin, executive director of Astoria Visual Arts.

Out of 200 submissions, 75 pieces were chosen for the exhibit. Award winners include Michelle Coventry, Sofia Morrill, Brianna Baird, Amalia Sher, Zackere Brundage, Ben Sheffl Thompson, Debi Glass, Walt Garnett and more.

CLOCKWISE FROM ABOVE: ‘Benson Enjoying The Breeze’ by Debi Glass. Brianna Baird’s piece ‘Disappearing Act 1’ won the exhibit’s first place award in design. Michelle Coventry’s piece ‘Mother & Son,’ won first place in the ceramics category.
