

'Stay Home' by Pacific Pixie.

Continued from Page 4

Clatskanie artist Pacific Pixie described her piece, "Stay Home," featuring a merry-go-round of horse skeletons surrounded by coronavirus cells, as "the feeling that anything that could bring joy is illegal and the fun in life is dying in front of us as the virus takes over our lives. Will there ever be a social distance safe carousel?"

Deluca created his juxtaposed collage of a doctor wearing a mask—holding a pizza using images from an old Life Magazine. The doctor is from an article on a hospital, the pizza from an advertisement.

Deluca, of Hammond, quoted singer Nina Simone in describing his inspiration for "Delivery": "It's an artist's duty to reflect the times," he said.

Angora Hiking Club to host Saturday hike

ASTORIA – The Angora Hiking Club will hike in Fort Stevens State Park at 9 a.m. Saturday.

Anyone is welcome to attend. Participants should meet in the Battery Russell parking lot inside the park by 9 a.m.

The hike will be a 10K, or 6.2 miles, through the park's historic area, then to Cof-fenbury Lake. Most of the hike will be on paved trails. The group recommends bringing snacks or a packed lunch, plus water.

Registration is recommended. To register, call hike leader Arline LaMear at 503-338-6883.

Fort Stevens State Park.

Jonathan Williams

'Sphere' by Ivan McLean.

Cannon Beach gallery features three artists

CANNON BEACH – Northwest By Northwest Gallery will host artist Ivan McLean for an artist's reception at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in the gallery, 232 N. Spruce St., Cannon Beach.

McLean's art will be featured alongside art by Don Stastny and Hazel Schleinger. McLean is a known sculptor whose work is featured at the San Luis Obispo Performing Arts Center, Newport Beach California Sculpture Park and other locations.

Stastny is a local painter, sculptor and architect. His featured art will include bronze sculptures.

Art by Ivan McLean and others will be featured at the gallery.

Schlesinger's paintings have been published in Southwest Art, and can be seen in movies and television shows. She will teach a limited-size painting class. To register, contact the gallery at 503-436-0741 or info@nwbynwgalleries.com.

Gallery visitors will be allowed inside two at a time. Visitors are required to wear masks.

LIBERTY
THEATRE
ASTORIA OREGON

1203 Commercial St.
Astoria, OR, 97103

ASTORIA'S PREMIER THEATRE FOR THE ARTS

MUSIC

DANCE

THEATRE

GET TICKETS - libertyastoria.org // 503-325-5922 Ext. 55