

A passion for art, music

Tempo Gallery, located on Commercial Street.

Tempo Gallery to leave downtown, go virtual

BY MORGAN GRINDY

When asked to add some color to the walls of the long, narrow space that hosts the Astoria Music Festival, volunteers put their art up and named it Tempo Gallery. The gallery displays the work of six local artists in Astoria.

In August, after about eight years in its downtown home, Tempo Gallery will reopen as an online gallery. The artists will celebrate the gallery's history during the Astoria Art Walk on Saturday.

Carol Smith

Carol Smith is a photographer focused on landscape and wildlife photography. Having spent most of her life by the ocean,

A photograph of the Columbia River by Carol Smith.

she is inspired by the natural world.

Smith has always enjoyed photography. She got her first film camera when she was 10 and acted as a documentarian for her family.

The lines of landscapes and con-

See Page 4

TEMPO GALLERY

a gallery of note

is going virtual!

August 8th Art Walk will be our last day in our gallery space

Join us on Saturdays, noon to 7:30 pm, at 1271 Commercial Street on July 25, Aug. 1st and 8th.

After that, we will be online only.

See our FaceBook page. Email: tempogallery1271@gmail.com

Come by and sign up for a drawing of $150 off any piece of art in gallery. Starting July 25th, art will be discounted by 25%