

'Light' by Jill Mulholland, shown at Astoria Visual Arts.

Continued from Page 6

series inspired by classic American film noir. Also featuring fiber art sculptures by Karen Thurman.

9. Tempo Gallery, 1271 Commercial St.

Presenting keyboard jazz by Peter Unander, plus original artwork by Tempo Gallery's six regional artists.

10. Oregon Gypsy Gallery, 1426 Commercial St.

Showcasing art in a variety of mediums including metal, ceramics, leather and wood.

11. AVA Center for the Arts, 1000 Duane St.

Featuring Jill Mulholland's collections including, "Light Paintings" which use reflected sunlight through different mediums that she photographed; the "Godesses" series, a group of large-scale collages from images Mulholland collected over the last 35 years, mounted on maps dated from 1930 to 1983; and the "Assemblages," a group of things that she collected over the last 15 years.

12. Vaulted Gallery, 1389 Duane St.

Presenting painter Scott Vaughan, whose work focuses on the experience of walking in nature and how places are remembered, using a mixture of abstract and impressionistic techniques.

13. Art Totale, 3rd and Bond streets

Presenting "How Small We Are," featuring fiber art sculptures and music.

LightBox Photographic Gallery opens two shows

ASTORIA — LightBox Photographic Gallery will host a reception for two new shows from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday in the gallery, 1045 Marine Drive.

The shows include "The Portfolios" and "The LightBox Files."

The portfolio show features images by nine photographers who were selected "for the excellence of their submitted photos." Four images from each photographer will be on display. Featured photographers include Laurie Feitag, Karen Hymer, Rich Bergeman, Pat Rose, Brian Edwards, Jan Becket, Walt O'Brien, Matthew Ragen and Ryan Synovec.

The second show, "The LightBox Files," is a reopening of an exhibit originally scheduled for April. The exhibit honors "the complete photographer, those that pursue the art of fine printing." Eight photographers are featured in the exhibit. Featured photographers include Jim Fitzgerald, Ann Kendellen, John DuBois, Ken Hochfeld, Dave Schaerer, Roger Dorband, Laura Kurtenbach and Mike Demkowicz.

Both exhibits will be available for viewing at the gallery until Sept. 8. The gallery is open from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday through Saturday.

'Nestled Blooms' by Pat Rose.

SUPPORT

$2000 Value

$20 PER TICKET

FUNDRAISING RAFFLE

SECRETS of the SIREN

Quilted collage wall hanging 48" x 72"

ONLY 300 TICKETS WILL BE SOLD

$20/TICKET

PURCHASE TICKETS

Call
The Museum 503-738-7065

OR

Visit
Our Facebook page
or
Seasideoregonmuseum.square.site

Drawing to be held at NOON 9/13/2020 At Museum's Salt Maker Event. Need not be present to win.

The Illahee Apartments

As good as it gets in Downtown Astoria!

1046 Grand Avenue
Astoria, OR 97103

503-325-2280

