Astoria, Seaside teams compete at nationals

The Astorian

Astoria's "Future Fish" 10U softball team advanced all the way to the championship game of the North American Fastpitch Association nationals tournament last Thursday through Sunday in Newberg.

And while the team lost in the championship game, it was a successful season for the age 10-and-under Future Fish, who finished the summer with a 14-4 record.

Coming out of pool play, the Astoria team was the top seed out of the "A" division, and had a first round bye in the championship bracket.

The Future Fish opened with a 7-1 win over the Newberg Impact and followed with an 11-1 victory over the Dayton Pirates.

Astoria's first bracket game was against the Beaverton Mound Time Jayhawks, the No. 2 seed in the "A" division.

And the two teams went the distance and a little beyond, with the Jayhawks winning 6-5 in eight innings.

Trailing 2-1 through five, Astoria took the lead in the sixth. After a single by Kendall Ewing and a walk to Kilee Svenson, Ewing scored on an error and Svenson sprinted home on a passed ball.

Beaverton tied the game at 3-3 in the bottom of the sixth, but Astoria countered with two runs in top of seventh. With two outs, Adriene Sterkel doubled and later scored on a single by Hailey Svenson, and Svenson scored on an error for a 5-3 lead.

The Jayhawks pulled even again with two runs in bottom of seventh on two singles and two doubles.

After Astoria failed to score in the top of the eighth, the Jayhawks started the bottom of the eighth with a runner on second. She took third on single, then scored on a passed ball to win, 6-5.

Astoria had four hits, including a double by Sterkel.

Astoria was bounced into a loser-out game, and responded with a 6-1 win over the Wilsonville Wildcats, setting up a rematch with Beaverton.

Astoria scored the first run of the game in the bottom of the first, when Sterkel had a one-out single, advanced to third and scored on a ground ball by Lyla Carlson.

From left, Astoria Future Fish softball players Hailey Svenson, Kilee Svenson and Maggy Falleur pose with the second-place team trophy from last week's nationals tournament in Newberg.

The Seaside Kids 10U softball team, which took part in the nationals tournament last week in Newberg.

That would be Astoria's lone run of the game, as the Jayhawks scored four runs in the second, added one in the third and broke the game open with four more in the fourth inning.

Beaverton had six hits off Astoria pitchers Augusta Hayrynen and Finely Cameron, who struck out four and walked four. Sterkel had two of Astoria's four hits.

The team was coached by Adam Svenson. Team members included Cameron, Carlson, Ewing, Maggy Falleur, Kyah Gohr, Hayrynen, Olive Hopkins, Sofi a Nygaard, Hadley Painter, Khloe Painter, Chloe Person, Sterkel, Hailey Svenson and Kilee Svenson.

Gulls finish season

The summer season came to a close Sunday for the Seaside Kids' 10U softball team, which also took part in the association's nationals tournament in Newberg.

After going 0-2 in pool play, Seaside faced a tough lineup of teams in bracket play Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Darnell Wright Sports Complex.

Seaside lost pool play contests to Canby (9-4) and Silver Fox Fastpitch (14-10).

That led to a first round game in the championship bracket against No. 1 seed Wilsonville.

Tied 5-5 after one inning, the Wildcats scored three runs in the second, five in the third and four in the fourth inning on its way to a 17-5 win over the Gulls.

Allie Corder and Araya Edwards each had a double for Seaside.

The Seaside kids bounced back with their lone win of the tournament, an 11-10 victory over the Gresham Rise.

In the 8 a.m. start Saturday, Seaside trailed Gresham 3-0 early, but scored one run in the second, as Jahzara Marshall singled and later scored on a grounder by Taylor Betts.

The Gulls grabbed a three-run lead in the bottom of the third.

After two walks, Mackenzie Haag scored on a passed ball and Olivia Morse came in on a double from Lila Thornburg to tie the game.

Thornburg scored on a passed ball, which was followed by singles from Sophia Saso and Edwards, and Corder brought everybody in with a home run to center field for a 6-3 advantage.

Gresham countered with five runs in the top of the fourth for an 8-6 lead, before the Gulls scored twice in the bottom of the inning, in which three players reached base on dropped third strike pitches.

The Rise tacked on two runs in the fifth, but it wasn't enough, as Seaside scored three in the bottom of the fifth.

Haag had a leadoff single and scored on a base hit by Thornburg. Saso reached on a catcher's interference call and Corder singled to bring in Thornburg with the tying run.

With two outs, Gracie Walker reached on another dropped third strike pitch, scoring Saso with the game-winning run.

In their final game against the Yamhill Tigers Rage, Seaside trailed 8-2 after two innings and never recovered.

Yamhill scored five runs in the third and two in the fourth on its way to a 15-6 win.

Thornburg was 2-for-2 and scored twice, while Saso had a double and also scored two runs, and Corder had two RBIs for the Gulls, who finished the season 5-12.

The team, sponsored by Seaside Kids Inc., was coached by Chris Corder and assisted by Forrest Betts, Nicole Sturgell, Emma Taylor and Nate Saso. Team members included Taylor Betts, Allie Corder, Edwards, Haag, Maple Jackson, Marshall, Lily Morris, Morse, Lauren Rahl, Sophia Saso, Berkley Sturgell, Thornburg and Walker.

Andrew 'Andy' Jacob Schindele

Warrenton
Jan. 31, 1936 — April 1, 2020

Andrew "Andy" Jacob Schindele, 84, passed away peacefully April 1, 2020, at home with his wife, Sue, by his side. He fought a long battle with leukemia, using his great smile and humor to keep himself and those around him upbeat and positive. He was quick to find humor in any situation, he loved people, and made friends wherever he went.

Andrew Schindele

Andy was born in Watkins, Minnesota, on Jan. 31, 1936, to Otto Schindele and Mary Yanish Schindele. He joined the Marine Corps on Feb. 11, 1954, served in Korea from 1954 to 1956, and was honorably discharged Feb. 10, 1957. Andy was a proud Marine.

In 1988, he relocated to the Astoria area from Minnesota. In 1989, he started a successful business, Schindele Decorating, that specialized in wall papering. He also became very active in the community, and was a member of the St. Mary, Star of the Sea Parish. He was also active in several local organizations such as the Lions Club, Knights of Columbus, the Marine Corps League and the St. Vincent De Paul Society.

He loved the Oregon Coast, and all outdoor activities like clam digging, fishing, hunting, mushroom picking, beachcombing, gardening and bird watching.

He is survived by his wife, Carolyn Sue Schindele; his son, John Andrew Schindele; daughter, Pamela Staricha; grandsons, Joshua Schindele and Andrew Sianko; brother, Norbert Schindele; stepdaughters, Shelly Bruney, Cindy Keane and Lisa Moore; and many step-grandsons and granddaughters.

He was preceded in death by his stepson, Paul Allen Smith; and four brothers, Joseph, Jacob, Arthur and Alfred Schindele.

He was a wonderful loving husband, dad, granddad and friend. He loved and enjoyed his extended family, attending as many family and high school events as his health permitted. He will be deeply missed by all.

A memorial service will be held on Aug. 19 at 11 a.m. at St. Mary, Star of the Sea Catholic Church, 1465 Grand Ave. in Astoria. A celebration of life follows the service.

Warrenton sweeps Ilwaco in season finale

The Astorian

The Warrenton and Ilwaco 17U teams finished out the summer baseball season Wednesday in a doubleheader at Tinker Field in Long Beach, Washington.

Warrenton scored a sweep over the Fishermen, 11-2 and 12-9, with Game 2 ending after six innings because of darkness.

Warrior pitcher Duane

Falls tossed a complete game in the opener, allowing four hits and four walks with 10 strikeouts.

Warrenton rapped out eight hits with three hits by Tyson McGrorty and a pair of doubles from Dawson Little.

The Warriors also had nine stolen bases and scored four runs each in the third and sixth innings.

Ilwaco trailed just 6-5 after one inning of the nightcap before the Warriors scored three in the third and tacked on one run each in the fourth and fifth.

Ilwaco scored four runs in the bottom of the sixth and had the bases loaded, before Ryan Hoagland came on in relief to record the final two outs.

Falls had three hits, including a triple, while Little and Nathan Streibeck had two hits apiece.
