Astoria exhibit features internationally-recognized artist

ASTORIA — The Clatsop Community College Royal Nebeker Art Gallery will open its new exhibition season on Monday with a solo show.

The show, titled "Rediscovering Silence," will feature art by Chris Sheridan, of Seattle.

Sheridan is an award-winning artist whose work has been featured both nationally and internationally in Finland and Morocco. He is currently represented by the Seattle Art Museum Gallery and recently returned from a two-month residency in Korpo, Finland.

The show will be displayed until Nov. 12. Viewers can also see the show online starting Tuesday at clatsopcc.edu/community-resources/royal-nebeker-art-gallery/.

Guests are expected to wear masks and follow social distancing guidelines. No more than six guests can enter the gallery at a time.

Pruning workshops set for next weekend

MANZANITA — Hoffman Center for the Arts will host aesthetic pruner Maryann Lewis for virtual and in-person pruning workshops on Oct. 8 and Oct. 10.

The Oct. 8 class will be held from 4 to 5:30 p.m. and take place by videochat. Registration costs $20.

The Oct. 10 class will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. outdoors. Registration costs $75 and is limited to 10 people.

Lewis' workshops will teach participants tips for caring for both small trees and big shrubs.

Register for the events at hoffmanarts.org.

Sou'wester to host virtual concert Saturday

SEAVIEW — The Sou'wester Historic Lodge will host Portland folk musician Jeffrey Martin for a livestream concert from 8 to 9:30 p.m. on Saturday.

The performance will be hosted on the lodge's Instagram, instagram.com/souwester.

The show is appropriate for all ages and is free to watch.
