

Hailey Hoffman/The Astorian

Jan Cartwright, left, and Shelby Mogenson are planning a 'Pandemic Porch Parade' as a fundraiser for the Assistance League on Oct. 10.

Porch parade to help local youth

Benefit event to feature 10 fall-themed porches

BY NATALIE SKOWLUND

Though winter is the traditional season to “deck the halls,” North Coast residents can get creative with seasonal decor this month.

The Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific will host a “Pandemic Porch Parade” from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Oct. 10. The parade will raise money for the organizations programs that support Clatsop County children.

The parade will feature a driving tour of 10 porches decorated with fun fall-inspired themes around Astoria. The event replaces the organization’s annual Home and Chef fundraiser.

The Home and Chef fundraiser was canceled this year as a precaution to the coronavirus pandemic.

The event will start at 725

Niagara Ave. in Astoria. Participants can view the 10 porches from their cars on a prescribed route. Porch displays will be located near Fred Lindstrom Park and Pioneer Cemetery, among other locations.

Parade participants can also

See Page 9

If You Go

Pandemic Porch Parade

Saturday, Oct. 10, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

$10 for adults 18 and older, youth 17 and younger participate for free

Tickets: bit.ly/3hVUjiq