

Pottery by artist Sonja Korpela is featured in Forsythea.

Morrison Pierce's 'What Price For Freedom' is featured at Astoria Visual Arts.

Continued from Page 6

Private appointments are available by calling 503-395-1221.

8. Imogen Gallery, 240 11th St.

Featuring charcoal drawings and paintings by April Coppini and ceramic art by Molly Schulps. The two artists share a common passion for environmental issues, with a focus on wildlife preservation.

9. Forsythea, 1124 Commercial St.

Showcasing pottery by Sonja Korpela. She spent years as a professional cake decorator before taking a pottery class. Her works can be used for meals or decor. Forsythea will close at 6:30 p.m.

10. RiverSea Gallery, 1160 Commercial St.

Presenting "Sea, Sky, Sand," a collection of sky and waterscapes by J Scott Wilson, of Manzanita. Also featuring a group show curated by local metalsmith and sculptor Tabor Porter, "The Day of the Dead: The Virus."

11. Oscar de' Masi Studio and Gallery, 1145 Commercial St.

Featuring watercolors of wildlife by Karl Hauer and new paintings by Oscar de' Masi.

12. Oregon Gypsy Gallery, 1426 Commercial St.

Showcasing artworks in mediums including metal, ceramics, leather and wood.

13. Vaulted Gallery, 1389 Duane St.

Presenting art by multidisciplinary artist Jen Crowe, who works in oils, natural fibers and precious metals. New works include a collection of abstract oil and cold wax paintings.

14. Lagom, 1350 Exchange St.

Featuring "Connections," a collection of Molly Schulps' featured works in Imogen Gallery include this vase.

work by Kim Lakin, whose works are modern and simple. Melissa Haeckel will present information on healing art modalities through music from 5 to 8 p.m.

15. Cambium Gallery, 1030 Duane St.

Showcasing "In Between," an exhibit of photographer Delilah Anaya's work. The collection focuses on the U.S. and Mexico border and immigration. The gallery will be open from 3 to 8 p.m.

16. AVA Center for the Arts, 1000 Duane St.

Presenting Morrison Pierce's latest works, which reflect current civil unrest of working class citizens in the U.S.

'Camelia' by April Coppini is shown at Imogen Gallery.

Molly Schulps' 'Bear Hug' is displayed at Imogen Gallery.

Freshly Harvested Cranberries
Open Daily 'til 6 pm
$8 Gallon
Cranguyma Farms
113th & Sandridge
N. Long Beach

Contact
Sarah Silver
503-325-3211
to place your ad
HERE!

be seen every thursday
Our Coast
weekend

To place your ad contact Sarah Silver: 503-325-3211 or ssilver@dailyastorian.com