Astoria Senior Center

Contact Person: Larry Miller, Executive Director
Address: 1111 Exchange St., Astoria, OR 97103
Phone: 503-325-3231
Email: larry@astoriaseniorcenter.org
Website: www.astoriaseniorcenter.org

Our mission:

The Astoria Senior Center (ASC) is a small gem in downtown Astoria, Oregon. The facility is meant to be an activities center, but our services extend past recreation. We have a dedicated staff of volunteers and an Executive Director who make the best of their facilities, using it to make a difference in people's lives. For example, we offer lifetime learning, important social interaction, and a comfortable, quiet facility. Also, we partner with the Columbia Senior Diners to provide delicious lunches. Thanks to our commitment, the seniors in the area have a clean and friendly environment to spend their time in and build relationships.

Service area: Astoria and surrounding area to include communities as distant as Rainer east and south to Cannon Beach

Volunteer opportunities:

Volunteers serve as hosts, bus drivers, nurse and elected board members.

Donations used for:

Maintaining the beautiful building, providing recreational trips for seniors, and last but not least assisting seniors in times of emergencies such as loss of utility services or potential loss of housing.
