

David Campiche

Suchart Srisopaporn places steamed vegetables on rice.

Curry: Owner worked in Las Vegas before moving to the Long Beach Peninsula

Continued from Page B1

ran by husband and wife team, Suchart Srisopaporn and Num-suk Srisopaporn.

Suchart was born in Bangkok. There, he acquired a chemistry degree. In the late '90s, he moved to Las Vegas, where he worked in a casino before eventually moving to the Long Beach Peninsula. His goal with the restaurant is to guarantee both the "quality and quantity of my product forever."

Suchart shared his recipe for "wonderful panang" for you to enjoy. I watched with delight as Suchart cooked up a steaming cauldron of chicken, shrimp, vegetables, coconut milk and a panang curry paste.

David Campiche runs the China Beach Retreat in Seaview, Washington, with his wife, Laurie Anderson. The couple ran the Shelburne Inn for 40 years. Campiche is an avid chef and potter.

Loving letters on love

Dear Readers: Recently, I asked you to write in with what you love most about your partners. I received enough responses to fill a book. I printed some on Valentine's Day, but I'd like to print a few more — because these letters brought me such joy that it seems wrong to keep them to myself. Read on for a smile.

Dear Annie: What I love most about my husband is that after more than 30 years he is still my best friend, and he cherishes me. We started as friends, eventually became lovers, and then were married. Our genuinely liking each other as people has kept us together through the rough patches. However I look on the outside, I know my husband loves me for the person I am on the inside — and he would give his dying breath to ensure I was safe and happy. My mother told me that passion is important, and it may seem cliché, but you needed to like the person you are with or the relationship was doomed to flame out. I guess Momma did know a few things. — D. Perry

Dear Annie: I can't properly describe what I love most about my wife in one letter, but I'll try. I love her with every fiber of my being and could go on for hours with different stories about why I love her so much and what she has done for me. We started dating in high school and got married about three years later. We still celebrate the anniversary of our Jan. 7 first date. I send her a "love" email every morning telling her how special she is and what she means to me. We have three beautiful grown daughters whose careers are in the service of others. Since my wife is a nurse, I know where they got it. — MJN

Dear Annie: I met my husband, John, in September 1964. We married the day after Christmas in 1964. He was in the U.S. Air Force, and we traveled near and far for the nine years we were married. We had a son in 1966. In 1973, John developed symptoms of heart problems and had to undergo open-heart surgery. While he was in the hospital, I found out

I was pregnant with our second child, and we were both ecstatic. However, he didn't survive to see his new daughter, who was born in December 1973. It has been almost 48 years since he passed, and I still love him. I had his two children and that was enough for me. In 2006, my son passed away with pretty much the same problems as his dad. So, now it's just my daughter and me. We live together and get along splendidly.

My husband was the love of my life. When I think of him (which is often), I still feel the love and thrill of being by his side for almost nine years. Even though I have missed him terribly over the years, I wouldn't have changed one minute of the journey — except to have him live to see his daughter and be by my side again. — Alone but Not Unhappy

Dear Annie: I have had a miscarriage, a mastectomy, leukemia and chemotherapy, and at one point I came close to a mental breakdown. Through it all, my husband did not waiver. He held me while I cried over the baby we would never have. He kissed the scar where my breast was removed. He watched over me while I was going through chemotherapy — and helped care for my newly widowed mother at the same time. That, Annie, is a real husband and an amazing human being. — One Lucky Wife

DEAR ANNIE

ANNIE LANE
Creators
Syndicate Inc.

GET TO THE POINT.

Expert Service. Guaranteed.

Trust your vehicle safety to the professionals at

DEL'S O.K. TIRE

TIRE and AUTO SERVICE

YOUR #1 SOURCE FOR TIRES CUSTOM WHEELS AUTOMOTIVE SERVICES

Hours:
Mon-Fri 8-6
Sat-8-4

503-325-2861
For emergencies
503-325-0233

35359 Business
Hwy 101
(Miles Crossing)
Astoria, OR

5% OFF AMP PowerSteps
with purchase and installation

Call us for details!
Offer expires 2/28/2021

theAstorian Classifieds

Searching for Employees?

PLACE YOUR JOB
POSTING HERE

Special Includes:

- 2 Weeks in Print & Online
- Logo Included
- Facebook Boost
- Featured Advertising

Call the Astorian at 503-325-3211 or email:
classifieds@dailyastorian.com

GARAGE SALE SEASON IS HERE!

ONLY
$25
for 3 days

Call 800.781.3214
to advertise today!
classifieds@dailyastorian.com

SELL YOUR VEHICLE HERE!

If it Drives or Floats...

$49.95

ADVERTISE TODAY
800.781.3214

classifieds@dailyastorian.com

If it doesn't sell in two weeks
We will give you two weeks for FREE!

theAstorian

Customer Service Hotline
800-781-3214

8AM - 5PM or leave a message anytime
or e-mail us: circulation@dailyastorian.com

We're your newspaper

107 Public Notices

The Sunset Empire Park & Recreation District is seeking candidates for the Budget Committee. Please visit our website at sunsetempire.com for more information. Deadline is March 1.

Sell your children's outgrown clothes and toys with a classified ad in The Astorian. Call 503-325-3211 to place your ad today!

Classified Ads work hard for you!

651 Help Wanted

Experienced Housekeepers $15+/hr interviews and application at The Tides at corner of Ave U and Beach Dr. 2316 Beach Dr, Seaside.

Cannery Pier Hotel & Spa Is Hiring!
Maintenance Manager
Director of Sales
Competitive salary & benefits
Send resumes to ldepledge@vestahospitality or apply in person.

651 Help Wanted

Utility Worker

Wickiup Water District is looking for motivated individuals to start their career in the water industry. We are accepting applications for the position of Utility Worker I. Please visit our website at <https://wickiupwater.specialdistrict.org> for a full job description, qualifications, and requirements. E-mail your cover letter and resume to michelle@wickiupwaterdistrict.com.

Have you seen our FEATURED ADS?
Only viewable on our website, www.dailyastorian.com. Call 503-325-3211 for more information!

651 Help Wanted

Full-Time Employment
Bill's Tavern & Brewhouse in Cannon Beach, OR is now accepting applications for servers, cooks, and bussers. Part time and full time positions available. Please apply in person at 188 N. Hemlock or call. Cannon Beach, OR. (503)436-2202 billstavern@gmail.com

Need help placing a classified ad? Call 503-325-3211 and we will be happy to assist you!