

Dream wedding

HALEY AND JOE MARTZEL'S WEDDING

Story by Zoë Buchli • Photos by Julie Adams

Haley and Joe Martzel said “I do” last March, right before the coronavirus pandemic hit. The couple exchanged vows on the back patio of the Ocean Lodge in Cannon Beach. The ceremony included the couple, an officiant, a photographer and a staff member of the hotel who acted as their second witness. “We love the Oregon coast so it was kind of a no-brainer for us to choose to (have a ceremony) there,” Haley said.

Joe said it had been a lifelong dream of Haley’s to have a small, intimate, romantic ceremony.

“(I wanted a ceremony) where you aren’t worrying about what other people are thinking, or having to accommodate other people, where you can just be in the moment and enjoy the day,” Haley said.

Without having to worry about accommodating family and friends, the two had endless options to choose how they wanted to have a ceremony.

“All we needed was two people in a suit and a dress to get wherever we were going,” Joe said.

“We love the Oregon coast so it was a no-brainer for us to have our wedding ceremony there.”