ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

VICTORIA RAMVICK
 Knappa

ROCKY RUB

BO WILLIAMS
 Astoria

In a one-week span, Knappa volleyball won two of three matches, and narrowly missed beating 3A power Warrenton, losing in five. Against Nestucca, the Loggers came back from a 2-0 deficit and won in five, with Ramvick posting a career-high 13 kills with seven digs. A senior, Ramvick had 15 kills in a loss at Warrenton, then finished her week with 11 kills and three blocks to beat Neah-Kah-Nie, for 39 kills in three matches.

Astoria's "Rocky & Bo Show" at quarterback gave Fishermen football their first win since 2018, 38-13 over Tillamook March 12. Williams started and completed 8-of-12 passes with two touchdowns. Rub came on in relief and led Astoria in rushing yards. The two combined for 211 yards in total offense and completed 11-of-19 passes for 135 yards and three touchdowns.

Knappa volleyball team outlasts Vernonia in five sets

The Astorian

For the fourth time in six matches, the Knappa volleyball team had to go five sets before a winner was decided.

And for the second time, Knappa was the winner, as the Lady Loggers won the "Logger Showdown" Thursday with a five-set win at Ver-nonia, 25-21, 28-26, 16-25, 21-25, 15-11.

The victory avenges a five-set loss to Vernonia to open the season March 2.

With wins in sets three and four in Thursday's match, Vernonia had the momentum before Knappa closed out Game 5 with a little momentum swing of its own.

"The fifth game of volleyball can go either way," said Knappa coach Jeff Kaul. "Much of it determines who has the momentum and the best team chemistry at the start of the last game, and this time the scales tipped in Knappa's favor."

Knappa built a 13-11 lead in the fifth set, and even a Vernonia timeout did not help the home team, as Knappa took the floor and quickly scored the final two points for the win.

Hannah Dietrichs led the offense with 15 kills while Victoria Ram-vick finished with 14 kills and eight blocks. Ava Skipper added 23 assists and 12 digs and Ashley Feldscher was 19-for-19 at the service line.

Knappa plays a nonleague match Monday at Seaside.

In other volleyball action Thursday, Valley Catholic swept Seaside, 25-9, 25-6, 25-11. Astoria at Banks was canceled.

TONGUE POINT JOB CORPS CENTER CELEBRATES STAFF EXCELLENCE!

MTC's annual Celebrating Excellence Program provides an opportunity for staff to recognize their peers - those employees who exhibit outstanding performance, go beyond what is expected of them, and do whatever it takes to make a positive difference. This past year was like no other, and all our staff deserve to be celebrated for their innovativeness and flexibility. To honor all our heroes on site, a virtual awards show spotlighted our winners across campus in socially-distanced viewing parties. Some site hosts ran with the theme by adding props and wearing glamorous gowns, while others just appreciated celebrating their peers. Either way, Tongue Point Job Corps Center is proud to say,
