Community education classes open to locals

ASTORIA — Registration is open for spring community education courses at Clatsop Community College.

Community education courses are open to local residents. Participants do not have to already be enrolled at the college.

Spring courses begin in early April. To register, email communityed@clatsopcc.edu or call 503-338-2408. Course subjects include ukulele, Spanish, meditation, vegetable gardening, self care, weaving maritime mats and handgun safety. Detailed class descriptions are available to read at clatsopcc.edu.

Virtual gardening workshop series will start Saturday

The Master Gardeners of Grays Harbor and Pacific Counties are offering a free series of online workshops starting on Saturday and running through May.

The workshops will provide information on successfully gardening and growing vegetables. The classes are designed to take participants from planning gardens to planting and maintaining it.

Classes will be held Saturday, April 15, May 1 and May 20.

Workshops will be hosted on Zoom for about 40 to 60 minutes each. Pre-registration is required at pnwmg.org. For more information, email katie.lutz@pnwmgfoundation.org.

Rhett's Ranch plans Easter egg hunt

CHINOOK, Wash. — Rhett's Ranch will host an Easter egg hunt Saturday at the ranch, located off Chinook Dyke Road.

Kids' events are staggered throughout the day based on age group. At 1 p.m., ages 3 and under can participate, followed by ages 4 to 6 at 1.30 p.m., ages 7 to 9 at 2 p.m. and ages 10 and older at 2.30 p.m.

The ranch will reopen at 7 p.m. for a "glow hunt" for children ages 13 and older. Kids should bring flashlights.

Rhett's Ranch is a 40-acre farm located between Chinook and Ilwaco, Washington. The farm features outdoor toys like Jenga and tire gyms for children to enjoy. The farm was created by Anne Mattson in honor of her son Rhett.

For more information, call 503-702-8745 or email farmfun@rhettstranch.com.

Hoffman Gallery opens April show

MANZANITA — Hoffman Center for the Arts' April show will run until April 25 at the gallery, 594 Laneda Ave.

The show features artists Sherrie Wolf and Mary Roberts. Two of Wolf's lesser-known pieces will be displayed, "Historionics" and "Found Paintings." The pieces feature hand-colored etchings, and black and white paintings.

Roberts' pieces are for her show, "Shape and Surface." The collection features "functional wheel-thrown vessels in subtle seacoast colors and textures."

The gallery is open from 1 to 5 p.m. Friday through Sunday. Admission is free.

Paintings by Sherrie Wolf are featured in Hoffman Center for the Arts' April gallery exhibit.
