

Plant sale set for Saturday

NEHALEM — Lower Nehalem Community Trust will host a plant sale from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday at Alder Creek Farm, 35955 Underhill Lane. Registration is required at nehalemtrust.org.

The sale is an annual fundraiser which supports the trust's community garden program, which educates and shares produce with the community. Plants for vegetable and fruit gardens, and flowers that are edible or attract beneficial insects, will be for sale.

Customers will be expected to wear masks and follow social distancing guidelines.

Food web hosts plant sale

ASTORIA — North Coast Food Web will host an Earth Day event, featuring a plant sale and activities, from noon to 7 p.m. on Thursday.

Plant vendors will be present from noon to 4 p.m. Activities will run from noon to 7 p.m., including a free seed table and a plant-a-seed station.

Vendors will include Gales Meadow Farm, Aldervale Native Plants, Sea Dance Nursery and KJewels Farm. Payment methods will vary by vendor but SNAP EBT will be accepted for vegetables, fruits and herb plant starts and seeds.

Ilwaco actors to host virtual show

Ilwaco Timberland Regional Library and the Peninsula Players will host a virtual show at 7 p.m. Thursday via Zoom. Register online at events.trl.org for the Zoom link.

The show will be an "after dinner story time for adults." Seasoned theater actors will entertain viewers with stories and poems that are close to the actors' hearts.

The Peninsula Players typically stage three to five shows per year at the River City Theater in Ilwaco, Washington, but haven't been able to perform since early 2020 because of the coronavirus pandemic.

Other showings will be held at 7 p.m. on May 27 and June 24.

Roadside cleanup scheduled for Wheeler

WHEELER — Lower Nehalem Community Trust will host a roadside cleanup event from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., off U.S. Highway 101 and Hemlock Street. Register at nehalemtrust.org.

The event will be held in honor of Earth Day. Volunteers will clean alongside the highway, in a section managed by the trust for Oregon Department of Transportation's Adopt-A-Highway program.

Participants should be at least 16 years of age. All participants will be required to sign a waiver and release prior to participation.

Young adults invited to audition for movie

Local residents ages 18 to 25 are invited to audition to play extras in an upcoming movie that will be filmed in Oregon.

The movie will be about four teenagers from the Pacific Northwest who run away from home "and set off on an improvisational odyssey in search of hope, opportunity and adventure." The group encounters a string of unique characters, "filled with spiritual ingenuity and haunted by the repercussions of the American Dream." Bill Ross and Turner Ross will direct the movie.

The casting crew is seeking "daredevils, fearless outcasts, misfits and the like. Strong personalities. Tough on the outside, fiercely loyal and protective of the ones they love." Groups of friends, individuals, siblings and couples are encouraged to apply.

No acting experience is required. To apply, submit a photo of yourself and your contact information to cargobuhl.com/oregon or cargobuhlcasting@gmail.com.

Auditions will be held in April and May. Filming will occur in June and July. All roles will be paid and travel costs will be covered.

Parks are free Thursday in Washington state

A free day is being offered by the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission on Thursday.

The free day is in honor of Earth Day.

On free days, visitors to Washington state parks will not need a Discover Pass for a day-use visit. The Discover Pass is required to access lands managed by the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife and the Department of Natural Resources.

Remaining free days are June 5, June 12, June 13, Aug. 25, Sept. 25, Nov. 11 and Nov. 26.
