Seaside baseball wins at Astoria, 13-2

The Astorian

Seaside overcame an early 2-1 deficit to defeat Astoria for the second time in 10 days, as the Gulls finished off the Fishermen in six innings, 13-2, in a Cowapa League baseball game on Friday at CMH Field.

The Gulls picked up all they would need with a five-run third inning, highlighted by a run-scoring double from Ryan Varoza that scored Luke Toyooka, and a pair of RBI singles.

Seaside scored twice on wild pitches to build a 7-2 lead through three innings.

Toyooka added a leadoff triple in the fifth, in which Kaleb Bartel had a two-run single for the Gulls, who collected nine hits off three Astoria pitchers.

Seaside pitchers Tanner Kraushaar, Andrew Teubner and Cash Corder allowed just two hits, with six walks and six strikeouts.

Karson Hawkins had a double and an RBI for Astoria, which stranded nine baserunners.

Warrenton pounds Clatskanie in twinbill

The Warrenton baseball team completed its three-game sweep over Clatskanie, with a Friday doubleheader victory at Lester Wallace Field, 18-0 and 12-1.

Coupled with Warrenton's 16-1 over the Tigers three days earlier, the Warriors out-scored Clatskanie 46-2, with two no-hitters.

In Friday's first game, Duane Falls needed just 54 pitches to finish off the Tigers, with 13 strikeouts. He threw just 12 balls, while the Tigers gave up nine hits and committed seven errors.

Warrenton built an 8-0 lead through three innings, then scored 10 in the fourth. Dawson Little had a triple and drove in three runs.

Warrior pitchers Dylon Atwood, Little and Mike Ulness combined on a one-hitter in Game 2, with Atwood picking up the win. He was also 3-for-3 at the plate, while Ethan Caldwell had a home run and a double.

Warrenton has a doubleheader Wednesday at Catlin Gabel and a single game makeup Thursday at Willamina.

Knappa tops Pirates, twice

Knappa improved to 6-0 overall with a doubleheader sweep Friday at home against Neah-Kah-Nie, 9-2 and 12-7.

The Loggers scored in six of the seven innings in the opener, collecting seven hits with 10 walks off the Pirates.

Treven Moreland led Knappa's offensive attack by going 3-for-3 with two doubles and two RBIs, while pitchers Drew Miller and Nick Rusinovich scattered six hits with 10 strikeouts and three walks.

The second game was tied 7-7 going into the bottom of the fourth, when Knappa scored five runs to take command.

Kutter Ball and Moreland had three hits apiece and scored a combined five runs. Logan Morrill had two doubles and Ball added a triple for the Loggers, who had 14 hits.

The Northwest League title could be decided the week, when Knappa plays a single game Tuesday at Portland Christian (also 6-0 overall), followed by a doubleheader against the Royals Friday at Knappa.

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

MADDIE SISLEY
Astoria

COLTON McMASTER
Astoria

The first back-to-back athlete of the week winner in two different sports, Sisley has opened her junior track season by posting some top times and marks in three different events in Oregon 4A track. After just two meets, Sisley is ranked third in the 100-meter hurdles (17.62 seconds) and the long jump (17-feet, half inch) and sixth in the 100 meters (13.57). All her marks were winners in a dual meet April 16 with Banks (Rob Frank Invitational), in which she was named female athlete of the meet.

Wherever and whenever this year's state track meet takes place, Astoria's big junior will be a big favorite to win at least two state titles. McMaster leads the rest of the state by a large margin in the discus and shot put, in which he already set a school discus record 173-7 in an April 12 intrasquad meet (37 feet further than the next-best mark in the state), and a personal best 56-4½ in the shot put April 16 (a 9-foot lead at the 4A level). Both marks rank third among Oregon athletes at all levels. His throwing coach, Bob Ellsberg, said McMaster is consistently throwing the discus over 200 feet in practices.

Clatskanie sweeps Warrenton softball

The Astorian

Clatskanie pitchers Shelby Blodgett and Kaity Sizemore shut down Warrenton on Friday in a Coastal Range League softball doubleheader, as the Tigers swept past the Warriors 12-0 and 15-4.

Blodgett tossed a one-hitter in the first game, while Clatskanie pounded out nine hits including three doubles and two triples. The Tigers held an 8-0 lead after two innings.

Warrenton had six hits off Sizemore in Game 2, but committed six errors, helping the Tigers jump out to an early 7-1 lead.

The Warriors scored three runs in the second, highlighted by a two-run double from Aveyree Mieth.

Clatskanie scored four runs in the fifth and added four in the seventh to pull away. Blodgett had two doubles and Kalani Ausmus had two of Clatskanie's four triples.

Plenty of Fishermen, Gulls on all-league team

The Astorian

League champion Banks dominated the spring 2021 Cowapa All-League football awards, announced earlier this month.

The Braves, who finished 4-0 in league, had the Cowapa's offensive and defensive players of the year (Charles White and Tyler Exline), while coach Cole Linehan shared the Coach of the Year award with Astoria's Howard Rub, whose team finished at 3-1 in league.

Banks had six players on the first team offense, and five on first team defense.

Astoria's first team selections included senior receiver

T.J. Colvin, senior offensive lineman Mike Berger and senior running back Michael Moore on offense; senior linemen Daniel Emerson-Palmer and Alexander Marincovich, senior defensive back Dylan Junes and junior defensive back Rocky Rub on defense. Junes was also the first team punter.

Seaside's first team members included Lawson Talamantez (Sr., tight end), Andrew Teubner (Sr., running back), Kaleb Bartel (Sr., kicker) and for the second straight season, all three Seaside linebackers (Teubner, Talamantez and Tanner Kraushaar) made first team defense.
