

Market at Pier 39 begins Sunday

The Astorian

The Hanthorn Cannery Market at Pier 39 begins Sunday, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., and features local photography by Astoria Photographix, art featuring historic homes and buildings by Ronni Harris, roasted nuts by Nutz-R-Us and driftwood art by Ocean Gevonden (Dutch for Uncovered Ocean).

New vendors are welcome throughout the season to complement the other businesses in place at Pier 39.

"We're looking forward to bringing more activity to this historic place," said Peter Marsh, director of the Hanthorn Cannery Foundation.

The market will operate indoors every Sunday through September. The Hanthorn Cannery Market is a new venture of Hanthorn Cannery Foundation to raise money and awareness about its efforts to preserve the history of the fishing and canning industry on the lower Columbia River.

Among the activities at Pier 39 is the Hanthorn Cannery Museum where visitors can learn about the history of the former Bumble Bee Seafoods cannery while locals enjoy a stroll down memory lane. The museum also sells an assortment of souvenir items, with proceeds benefiting the Hanthorn Cannery Foundation.

The Hanthorn Cannery Market at Pier 39 will feature a variety of vendors.

Vendors wishing to participate should email HanthornCanneryMarket@gmail.com or call 360-269-1039. Booth fees are $25 a day for a 10-foot by 10-foot space (or $80 a month) and $15 a day (or $55 a month) for a table-top space of approximately 5 feet by 4 feet.

COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Kautz receives Silver Beaver award

WARRENTON — Local youth mentor David Kautz, of the Shipwreck District of the Cascade Pacific Council, Boy Scouts of America, was presented the Silver Beaver volunteerism award on April 22 at a virtual ceremony. This is the top award that a local Boy Scout council can bestow upon a volunteer mentor.

After several years of serving as the assistant district advisor, Kautz took on his role as chapter advisor. He is also the assistant chairman in charge of the district Pinewood Derby and recruits adult leaders for Pack 540 and Troop 642.

Kautz obtained material to repair damages to Camp Royce-Finell, including vandalism, storm damage and coastal rot. In addition, he helped build a 150-foot raised walkway through the swamp after storm damage cut off part of the main trail access.

A retired U.S. Coast Guard chief, he is active in the Seaside American Legion, and has helped with the Seaside Middle School and Seaside High School wrestling teams, running concessions and doing team statistics.

Kautz has also been involved with the Warrenton and Seaside fire department food drives. He takes pride in serving his community and scouting.

For information about scouting, go to cpcbsa.org or Scouting.org

Blood donors needed

The Red Cross continues to urge healthy individuals, especially those with type O blood, to give blood to ensure hospitals can meet patient needs.

There are three opportunities to donate blood in Clatsop County in May: In Astoria, from 1 to 6 p.m. Wednesday at Holiday Inn Express, 204 W. Marine Drive, and from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday at Clatsop Community College, 1651 Lexington Ave.; and in Seaside, from 1 to 6 p.m. Tuesday at the Elks Lodge No. 1748, 324 Avenue A.

Those who come to give blood, platelets or plasma in May will be automatically entered for a chance to win a travel trailer camper that sleeps five. Plus, those who give from May 1 through May 15 will receive a $5 Amazon.com gift card by email.

Schedule a donation appointment by going to RedCrossBlood.org or calling 800-733-2767.

Day of Caring a success

On April 17, 146 volunteers brought their families, friends and co-workers to three Clatsop County sites to clean up, plant and rebuild at parks and nonprofits during the 2021 Day of Caring, hosted by United Way of Clatsop County.

Donated supplies and funds made it possible to pick up storm debris, clean cabins, pressure wash structures, weed, plant, rebuild garden beds and install Americans with Disabilities Act pavers. The volunteers worked at three locations: Railroad Community Gardens in Seaside, Camp Kiwanilong in Warrenton and Hilltop Apartments in Astoria.

People also donated over 16 large boxes of essential items for nonprofit clients, including food, baby supplies, personal care items and new clothing, collected at the volunteer sites as well as the Barbey Maritime Center at the Columbia River Maritime Museum.

Finnish Folk Festival sells vintage T-shirts

NASELLE, Wash. — A Vintage Finnish American Folk Festival T-shirt Sale is being held from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday at the Naselle Community Center, 14 Parpala Road. Only cash and checks will be accepted.

The event features past festival and Paavo Nurmi Run T-shirts and sweat-shirts, and various other merchandise. Sample T-shirts will be hung outdoors. Orders may be placed at the door, where the merchandise will be delivered.

All purchases by donation will benefit either the Finnish American Folk Festival or the Naselle Community Center.

Wildlife center holds open house, plant sale

The Wildlife Center of the North Coast, 89686 state Highway 202, will host its fourth annual Spring Open House and Native Plant Sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. May 8.

The event, designed for all ages, includes a booth with activities for children and provides an opportunity to tour the wildlife rescue center, as well as meet the team who cares for native wildlife.

This fundraiser will help raise funds just in time for the start of the busy baby animal season. Donations provide food, medicine, quality medical care and safe shelter for birds, mammals and other wildlife creatures in need.

Tour groups will be limited; to reserve a spot in advance, go to the center's website at coastwildlife.org. Masks will be required indoors and outdoors where social distancing cannot be maintained.

For information about the Spring Open House or how to get involved, go to coastwildlife.org or call 503-338-0331.
