

TLC delivers gift baskets to schools, teachers

The Astorian

TLC, a division of Fibre Federal Credit Union, is delivering teacher appreciation gift baskets, packed with classroom essentials, to schools in several counties in Oregon and Washington state.

Bailey Roberts and Deb Dixon of TLC hand-delivered the baskets over the last several weeks. "Classroom teaching has gradually resumed," Dixon said, "so we took this great opportunity to show our gratitude to teachers in our service areas."

The baskets were delivered to: the middle and high schools in Astoria, Knappa, Seaside and Ilwaco, Washington; Jewel High School; Nehalem Elementary School; Wahkiakum High School; and Warrenton High School.

Mannix named to All-Oregon Academic Team

The Astorian

SALEM — Valerie Mannix, of Seaside, who attends Clatsop Community College, has been announced as one of 45 community college students selected to this school year's All-Oregon Academic Team by the Oregon Community College Association.

The students are selected for their academic excellence, leadership and community service. They are all members of Phi

Valerie Mannix

Theta Kappa, a community college honor society.

Each year, Phi Theta Kappa, community college presidents and community college state associations sponsor All-State Community College Academic Team ceremonies in 37 participating states. Due to the coronavirus pandemic, the Oregon Community College Association is honoring the students on its website at bit.ly/2QWLuT1

Senior Emma Taylor was recognized as the only Oregon Future Business Leaders of America member in the state to finish the Community Service

The Astoria Scandinavian Midsummer Festival 2021 members of the Astoria Nordic Heritage Park Committee welcomed Bjert the troll to Astoria recently. They helped escort him in a Troll Parade from the future site of Astoria Nordic Heritage Park to FinnWare, where he will be on display until the park is built.

Church offers clothes bank

WARRENTON — A free good condition clothes bank, for children in sixth grade to infants, is being offered from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. Friday, and from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, at Warrenton First Baptist Church, 30 N.E. First St. For information, contact Sandi Bridgeman at 503-338-6073 or 503-791-7522.

Young artists invited to enter peace poster contest

The Astoria Lions Club and the Astoria Art Loft are partnering again to host young artists in creating peace-themed posters for submission to the Lions Club International 2021 to 2022 Peace Poster Contest.

The winning local entry will be submitted for judging at the district level; the district winner will be submitted for multi-district judging. That winner will be submitted to the Lions Club International-level contest.

The contest, whose theme is "We Are All Connected," is open to ages 11 to 13, born Nov. 16, 2007, through Nov. 15, 2010. Posters are evaluated on three criteria at each level of judging: Originality, artistic merit and expression of the theme.

Artwork size can be no smaller than 13 by 20 inches, and no larger than 20 by 24 inches. Do not mat or frame the artwork. All materials will be provided.

The contest, which is open now, is hosted by the Astoria Art Loft, 106 Third St., and is part of their activities planned for young people this summer and fall. The local winner will be selected on Oct. 6.

Young people interested in participating can send their contact information to astorialionsclub1942@gmail.com or can contact the Astoria Lions Club on Facebook at fb.me/LionsClubAstoria
