Blue Star Families receive free museum admission

The Columbia River Maritime Museum will participate in the Blue Stars Museum program this summer through Sept. 6.

The National Endowment for the Arts and Blue Star Families announced the return of the program.

This free admission program is available for those serving in the U.S. Army, U.S. Navy, U.S. Air Force, U.S. Marine Corps and U.S. Coast Guard; as well as members of the U.S. Army Reserve, U.S. National Guard, the U.S. Public Health Service Commissioned Corps and National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration; and up to five family members.

Admission to the Maritime Museum is already free for active-duty military but the museum participates in the Blue Star Museums program as a way to thank military families.

Local credit unions host shred day

WARRENTON — Two local credit unions are hosting a Shred Day event from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, or until the collection truck is full, at Lum's Auto Center, 1605 S.E. Ensign Lane.

TLC, a division of Fibre Federal Credit Union, and Wauna Credit Union, are joining to fight identity theft by shredding financial documents. Citizens can bring up to three 10-ream paper boxes and have them shredded securely and professionally for free.
