

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

ERIKA GLENN Ilwaco

The senior guard broke the Ilwaco single game scoring record twice in one week. Glenn, committed to play next season at Western Oregon University, scored 58 points in a 90-67 win over Rainier in the district 2B tournament. She also scored a school record 47 points in a 77-32 victory at Chief Leschi. Glenn opened the tournament Monday by scoring 32 points in a 68-34 win over Winlock. The previous Ilwaco record was held by Lindsay Ramsey, 43 points vs. Adna, Feb. 11, 1999.

LOGAN MORRILL Knappa

The 6-foot-8 junior post had a big week in the scoring column. In a 53-25 win over Neah-Kah-Nie Monday, Morrill led the Loggers with 24 points. One night later at Warrenton, he scored 15 second half points and finished with 23, helping Knappa rally for a 48-36 win. His presence in the middle gives the Loggers a big rebounder, shot blocker and shot changer that most teams at the 2A do not have — and will make Knappa a power at the 2A level this year and next.

Poyer will be signing autographs June 21

The Astorian

Astoria's Jordan Poyer will be holding a personal workout session at 7 p.m. June 21 at CMH Field. An autograph session will be held from 6 to 6:45 p.m.

Poyer's annual summer football camp has been canceled, but the Buffalo Bills' safety will be in Astoria over the weekend, helping with fundraising efforts for Astoria High School.

Donations for the workout and autograph sessions will be accepted (pictures and T-shirts are available), and all proceeds will go to Astoria High School.

In addition, Poyer is hosting a golf tournament June 20 at the Astoria Golf & Country Club. Poyer is matching tournament entry fees, with proceeds to support Astoria athletics. Cost is $150 for country club members, $250 for nonmembers. To register, call Astoria athletic director Howard Rub at 503-298-9419.

PREP ROUNDUP

Astoria girls pound Tillamook basketball

Astoria bounced back from a home loss to Banks with an easy 78-30 win Wednesday night at Tillamook in a Cowapa League girls basketball game.

Astoria senior Halle Helmersen outscored Tillamook all by herself, pouring in 36 points, 24 in the first half. She connected on six 3-pointers over the first two quarters, leading Astoria to a 43-18 halftime lead. Sophie Long added 16 points and Kelsey Fausett scored 10 for the Lady Fishermen.

Vernonia 40, Knappa 24

The Vernonia Lady Loggers continued their perfect season with another win Wednesday night, a 40-24 victory at Knappa, in a Northwest League girls basketball Logger showdown.

With three games remaining, Vernonia improved to 6-0 overall, 5-0 in league games.

Knappa (2-5) has three of its final four games on the road.

After a 7-0 run midway through the first half of Wednesday's game, Knappa held a slim 11-10 lead, following a close range shot from Gabriella Morrill.

But two free throws from Vernonia's Audrey Hill sparked an 8-0 run and Vernonia did not trail again.

Vernonia senior Jayden Hartman led all scorers with 17 points followed by Brooklyn Walters with 11. Hannah Dietrichs had seven points and Vicki Ramvick added six for Knappa.

Astoria boys top Tillamook basketball

Astoria snapped a 13-game losing streak in Cowapa League play with a solid 56-41 boys basketball win Wednesday night over Tillamook at the Brick House.

It was the first victory in league play for the Fishermen since Feb. 7, 2019, (a 42-38 win at Tillamook).

"We definitely rebounded better, it felt like we shot the ball better, the ball movement was good ... I was just real happy — it was a nice team effort," said Astoria coach Kevin Goin.

After trailing 10-4 early, Astoria went on a 26-10 run to close the first half, with a pair of Colton McMaster 3-pointers highlighting a 13-2 second quarter run.

McMaster finished with a game-high 23 points, and Xander Marincovich had nine of his 14 points in the first half.

"I think Colton is just finally rounding into basketball form," Goin said. "He had a long track season, but he's been working hard."
