Gallery seeks art, schedules workshops

GEARHART — Registration is open for two July workshops hosted by Trail's End Art Association at trailsendart.org. Artist work is also sought for an upcoming show.

The workshops will last three days each. Deborah Stenberg will host "Still Life with Traditional Pastels," between July 12 to July 14. The class is designed for all levels.

Later in the month, Lynne Wintermute will host "Oil and Cold Wax Magic" from July 23 to July 25. The class is also open to all skill levels. Participants will finish six to eight paintings. Registration is also open for a more advanced course hosted by Wintermute, scheduled for September.

Art is sought by local artists for Trail's End Art Association's 70th annual judged show, scheduled for Aug. 6 to Aug. 29. Wet, dry, mixed media, photography and 3D art is welcome.

Art should be submitted at the gallery, 656 A Street, either between 3 to 5 p.m. on Aug. 1 or from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Aug. 2.

Specific submission requirements are available online at trailsendart.org

Annual arts camp scheduled

CANNON BEACH — Registration is open for Cannon Beach Arts Association's 19th annual Summer Art Camp at cannonbeacharts.org/kidsprograms

The camp will be held July 5 to July 9 virtually for children ages 3 and up. Participants will complete courses at home using art kits. Topics will include mixed media, watercolor, drawing, collage and sketch booking.

Adults are encouraged to participate in the camp with their youth campers. Each class includes an art kit with supplies, pre-recorded instructor videos and optional virtual check-ins. Local drop off, pick up and shipping will be available for getting the camp kits.

Some scholarships are available for children. To learn more, email artcamp@cannonbeacharts.org. For help in Spanish, contact andrea@cannonbeacharts.org.

Ilwaco actors to host virtual show

Ilwaco Timberland Regional Library and the Peninsula Players will host a virtual show at 7 p.m. Thursday via Zoom. Register online at events.trl.org for the Zoom link.

The show will be an "after dinner story time for adults." Seasoned theater actors will entertain viewers with stories and poems that are close to the actors' hearts.

The Peninsula Players typically stage three to five shows per year at the River City Theater in Ilwaco, Washington, but haven't been able to perform since early 2020 because of the coronavirus pandemic.

Exhibit honors Seaside Prom

SEASIDE — A photo exhibit in honor of the Seaside Promenade's 100th anniversary will be displayed at the Seaside Public Library from Thursday until Aug. 7.

The exhibit features a collection of photographs taken of the Prom and its surroundings since its dedication on Aug. 7, 1921. Some photos come from the Seaside Museum & Historical Society's private collection.

The exhibit is available to view from 9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday; 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday; and 1 to 4:30 p.m. on Sunday. The exhibit is hosted by the library and museum.
