

Costumed members of the Pacific Northwest Living Historians will demonstrate the tools and skills utilized during the Lewis and Clark expedition at the Knappton Cove Heritage Center.

Learn about Lewis and Clark during history event

NASELLE – A Lewis and Clark living history interactive program is happening 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. July 10, and from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. July 11, at the Knappton Cove Heritage Center.

The program is free and donations are welcome.

The museum inside the historic U.S. Quarantine Station building will be open from noon to 4 p.m. both days.

Throughout the two-day event, costumed members of the Pacific Northwest Living Historians will demonstrate the tools and skills utilized during the Lewis and Clark expedition, including handling flintlock firearms, camp cooking, starting fires with flint and steel, making clothing and canoe paddles.

Children's theater program registration opens

ASTORIA — Registration is open for a children's theater program at bit.ly/3j8bmT0. The program, sponsored by the Liberty Theatre and the Missoula Children's Theatre, will run as an in-person camp July 12 to July 17.

Children entering grades first through 12th are eligible to participate. The program is free to all children. During the camp, participants will learn about putting together a theater show, then will run public performances on July 17.

Registration is limited to a first-come, first-served basis. Children will be sorted into groups based on age.

Children will be required to wear masks.

More information and tickets for the public shows are available at libertyastoria.org
