

Three For Silver

Concert set for Saturday

SEAVIEW — The Sou'wester Historic Lodge will host Three For Silver, a “full-time trio of gypsy jazz mercenaries and multi-instrumentalists” for a concert from 8 to 9:30 p.m. on Saturday at the lodge, 3728 J Place.

The show will be open to all ages and free to watch.

Novelist featured at KALA event

ASTORIA — KALA will host novelist Alan E. Rose at 8 p.m. Friday at 1017 Marine Drive. Tickets are limited to nine small groups of two to three people each. Tickets cost $15 and are available at brownpapertickets.com

The event also is part of KALA's new monthly original series, “First Person: authors talk,” which will feature an hour of lively discussion with local authors and writers. Heather Hirschi will be the series' host.

Rose's novel, “As If Death Summoned,” revolves around the impact of AIDS on the narrator as the virus spreads in Melbourne, Australia, and through his community in Portland. The novel was awarded the Foreword INDIES Book of the Year Award.

Alan E. Rose

Audience members will be able to ask performers questions and can expect some surprises during the events. Events will feature writers' perspectives on everything related to writing.

KALA is overseen by HIPFiSHmonthly, whose publisher is Dinah Urell.

Hoffman Gallery opens July show

MANZANITA — Hoffman Center for the Arts' May show will run until Aug. 1 at the gallery, 594 Laneda Ave.

The show features artists Pam Greene and Kathy Kanas.

Greene will be featuring the show “Pacific Daydream,” which includes a collection of paintings that depict the Oregon Coast. All of the paintings were made in Neah-Kah-Nie.

Kanas will showcase handmade baskets that were made during the coronavirus pandemic. Many of the baskets were made on the road and were inspired by Kanas' experience during the pandemic.

The gallery is open from 1 to 5 p.m. Friday through Sunday. Admission is free.
