

Warrenton baseball tops Tillamook

The Astorian

Warrenton rallied from a 7-4 deficit to score an 8-7 win over Tillamook on Monday in a Junior Baseball game at Huddleston Field.

The nonleague Game 2 was suspended because of darkness in the sixth inning. The Warriors were leading 6-4 to start the inning.

Josh Earls had the big day at the plate for the Warriors, sparking the comeback in Game 1 with a two-run triple in the bottom of the fifth.

Earlier, Warrenton's Kaison Smith had a solo home run in the third inning for a brief 4-3 lead, before the Cheesemakers responded with a grand slam in the top of the fourth.

In the bottom of the seventh, the Warriors had two batters hit by pitch and another drew a walk, and scored the game-winning run on a misplayed fly ball by the Cheesemakers.

Earls had a double and a triple in the nightcap, and Nate Streibeck added a triple for the Warriors, who were scheduled to play a doubleheader Thursday at Ilwaco.

Astoria Ford 8, Knappa 4

In other Junior Baseball action Monday, Astoria Ford defeated Knappa, 8-4.

Astoria's Connelly Fromwiller had two doubles and drove in two runs, Gunnar Olson had a single, double and scored twice.

Pitcher Karson Hawkins pitched four innings, allowing two runs.

Olson was also named Player of the Week for the Lower Columbia Baseball Club in Longview, Washington. Competing for Rohl Roofing, Olson finished the weekend Firecracker Classic tournament with a .555 batting average.

Local volleyball players selected all-league

The Astorian

The Oregon School Activities Association has completed all seasons for the 2020-21 school year. Now it's time for another one — awards season.

In volleyball, local teams had several players selected to their respective all-league teams.

At the 4A level, the Cowapa all-league squad included two Seaside players (seniors Karen Wing and Annika Wunderlich) on the first team, along with Astoria senior Halle Helmersen.

League champion Valley Catholic had the Players of the Year (senior Maddie Klopcic and sophomore Naima Foster) and the Coach of the Year (Becky Kemper). All six Valiant starters were all-league.

Astoria and Seaside also had honorable mention selections.

At the 3A level, the Coastal Range all-league team included three players from regular season champion Warrenton. Senior Mia McFadden and junior Avyree Miethe were selected to the first team, while Coach of the Year Staci Miethe led the Warriors to their third straight league title.

In the 2A Northwest League, Knappa's Hannah Dietrichs was a first-team selection.

At the 1A level, Jewell coach Jessica Miller led the Blue Jays to a 13-2 overall record, and 6-0 as the co-league champions in the Casco League.
