

OBITUARIES

Carl Nordahl Monsen Jr.

Bend
July 21, 1945 — May 20, 2021

Carl Nordahl Monsen Jr. passed away peacefully at a hospital in Bend on May 20, 2021, at the age of 75, of heart disease.

A gathering in his honor will take place at the Maritime Memorial Park in Astoria, 200 W. Marine Drive, at 1 p.m. on July 17 in his memory. We ask that friends who would like to share his memory attend. Any pictures and memories people would like to share are welcome.

Carl was born on July 21, 1945, in Astoria, to Barbara Katherine (nee Sasnett) and Carl Nordahl Monsen Sr. Both parents have preceded him in death.

He attended Lewis and Clark Elementary School, Astoria Middle School and graduated from Astoria High School, where he played football, basketball, track and field.

While in high school, Carl was the leading scorer on his intramural league championship team, and continued playing basketball, along with his brother, Bill, while attending Clatsop Community College.

Following college, he married Marsha Wohlfeil, who preceded him in death. The couple had two daughters, Summer Monsen Silva and Misty Dawn Monsen (aka Devyn Ocean).

Living in Astoria, Carl worked for Georgia-Pacific paper. He began as a lift driver and later managed the parts and maintenance department.

A significant chapter in Carl's life was his long-term service in the Oregon chapter of the Army National Guard "Coms" (Communication) unit based out of Camp Rilea in Warrenton.

Carl was an avid water sports participant. Following retirement, Carl devoted significant time to Astoria Scuba. Carl was not just a member of the National Association of Underwater Instructors, but had a four-digit Mafia (4268) dive certification.

Carl taught scuba at Clatsop Community College in the 1970s and 1980s. He believed that the National Association of Underwater Instructors made the difference when it came to dive safety, due to his own beginner diver experience when a weight belt failed to release, and he desperately fought his way to the surface, narrowly surviving!

Carl was Astoria's hydrostatic testing tech, pressure safety inspector and founder of Astoria Fire and Safety, at Astoria Scuba.

Carl regained his national instructor status and assisted Astoria Scuba in many open water dives in the Hood Canal, including being one of the few Astoria Scuba pioneers whose dive log included "Terrible Tilly" aka the Tillamook Rock Lighthouse and the wrecks around it. Carl was the instructor and certifier of hundreds of divers!

Carl is survived by his longtime (29-year) friend and wife of three years, Bilye Turner Monsen. The couple, introduced by his brother, Cliff, has shared world travel, political differences, laughter and love.

In addition to his daughters, Summer (Ryan) Silva, of Camas, Washington, and Misty Monsen, of Astoria, Carl is survived by brothers Bill (Catherine) Monsen, of Honolulu, Hawaii, and Cliff (Gayle) Davis, of Redmond; one niece and two nephews; and grandchildren, Tyler Puckett, of Warrenton, Gia Davis, of Chinook, Washington, and Jake Silva, Corbin Silva, Bella Silva and Daxson Silva, of Camas.

Special thoughts shared by Summer, Carl's oldest daughter, tells us that he was a "Girl's Dad." He was kind, gentle and loving. Summer and her sister, Misty, would play dress-up with his dive gear in the basement, and Carl would always laugh when they tried to talk with the snorkels and masks on.

They would stay up late after their mom went to bed and would get "secret" bites of ice cream and share orange circus peanuts. Summer remembers Carl always saying, "I'm your dad and you're my girls."

He was truly an example of complete and unconditional love! Summer closes her thoughts with "we will see you on the other side, Dad" and "keep blowing those bubbles!"

Know that you will be missed terribly, and loved deeply!

Carl Monsen Jr.

James Duane Patching

Monmouth
March 14, 1951 — July 3, 2021

James Duane Patching passed away on July 3, 2021, in Monmouth.

Jim was born on March 14, 1951, in Longview, Washington, to Duane and Charlotte Patching.

A longtime Astoria resident, Jim was a retired teacher and coach who touched many lives with positivity, and was beloved by all who knew him.

A true family man, he was a lover of all things for his family. Jim was very proud of his children and grandchildren, spoiling them and helping them with anything they needed, including the preparation of his specialty eggs and chocolate chip pancakes on weekends.

Jim was a wonderful storyteller and entertainer and was the life of the party. He was a talented musician, playing the piano and guitar, and also loved woodworking, building furniture and other things for his family.

Jim was a proud Oregon State University alumnus and Beaver fan. He loved the Lord Jesus Christ, and was a proud and patriotic American.

Jim was completely devoted to his wife of 45 years, Jan. He was the loving father and papa of: Tami Stelzig and her husband, Collin, and their daughters, Chloe and Anna; Amy Bubar and her husband, Jeremy, and their sons, Nathan and Tyler; Andy Patching and his wife, Becca, and their daughters, Cora and Devany; and Kari Smith and her husband, Derek, and their daughters, Emily and Natalie.

Jim is also survived by his sisters, Diane Curs and Dorothy Leonhardt.

A celebration of Jim's life will be held on Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Warrenton Community Center, 170 S.W. Third St. in Warrenton.

JoAnne Hendrickson Bay

Astoria
Nov. 5, 1930 — June 26, 2021

JoAnne Hendrickson Bay was born to William Franklin Hendrickson and Emma Josephine Wittle in Seattle and grew up in Snohomish, Washington.

She married Harold Dwaine Lambert after graduating from Snohomish High School in 1949. They had four children, Michael D. Lambert (spouse Rayni Lambert), Roy Anthony Lambert, Kathryn Nell Lambert-Coffey (spouse Jack Coffey) and Daniel Jay Lambert.

Dwaine and JoAnne divorced in 1962, but remained lifelong friends until Dwaine's passing in 2011.

JoAnne moved to the Astoria area and married William Franklin Bay in 1965. They had one child, Jeffrey Franklin Bay, and cared for Frank's sons, Dennis Bay and Michael Bay.

She is preceded in death by her husband and siblings, William Hendrickson and Beverly Moberg.

JoAnne is survived by her children and two siblings, Carolyn Maycumber, of Astoria, and Jackie Hendrickson, of Austin, Texas; 15 grandchildren; and multiple great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

JoAnne loved cooking, canning and sharing recipes, her flower garden (especially roses) and sewing for her children and grandchildren.

She enjoyed socializing with friends and family, and was always there to help her family emotionally and financially in times of need when life, choices, hardships or tragedy threatened their well-being.

There were always a lot of smiles and laughter when reminiscing old hunting and outdoor adventure stories. And, of course, when she was bragging about her grandchildren's successes!

She had strong opinions, but was tolerant of others' viewpoints or lifestyles. The family learned early on not to bring up politics or the O. J. Simpson trial, or they would become a captive audience for hours!

Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Visitation is on Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., at Caldwell's Mortuary, 1165 Franklin Ave. in Astoria.

A graveside service will follow at 2 p.m. at Greenwood Cemetery, 91569 Oregon Highway 202. Please sign the online guestbook at caldwellsmortuary.com

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital through their website at stjude.org

Raphael 'Stubby' Lyons Jr.

Seaside
Sept. 4, 1934 — Dec. 25, 2020

Coach Raphael 'Stubby' Lyons Jr. passed away on Dec. 25, 2020.

Part Sioux, he was born on Standing Rock Reservation to Raphael and Ann Lyons. The family moved to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, in 1942. He was a five sport athlete at Coeur d'Alene High School, and held several class offices.

After high school, he served two years in the U.S. Marines and was stationed in Korea. After that he became the manager of the very large Spokane Elks Club.

After the loss of his son (12 years old), he decided to return to college to finish his degree, and get his teaching credentials to work with kids. He received his bachelor's degree from Eastern Washington State College and his master's degree from Pacific University.

He taught and coached in Washington, Idaho, Nevada and Oregon. His teams have won eight state championships in three states. He has coached eight different sports, and has taught 16 subjects over his 45-year career.

He finally settled in Seaside in 1980, where he retired in 1999. The highlight of his career was when the Seaside football team won the state championship in 1994 — he was a very proud coach.

After retirement, he became the driving instructor for Seaside High School. He used to say that his experience taught him that there really is a God! He and his wife, Sharee, also coached the Seaside High School cheerleaders.

Coach was elected to the Seaside City Council in 2000, serving until stepping down in 2014. He served several years as council president. In 2003, he was presented the Education and Community Service Award by the League of Oregon Cities on the state and national level at their annual meeting. He was also the commander of the American Legion and a life member of several other organizations.

He is survived by his wife, Sharee, in Seaside; sister, Joan Lyon Lewis, in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; son, Lance (Karen), of Bend; daughter, Lacy (Luke) Pannebaker, and grandchildren Lola and Layla, of Westport; stepsons, Halston Brack and Ethan, Owen and Dylan, of Los Angeles, and Andrew (Michelle) Brack and Anna, of Boise, Idaho; and former wife, Vanessa (Darwin) Underhill, of Warrenton. He also has several nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held on July 17 at the Seaside High School football field in Broadway Park at 11 a.m.

In lieu of flowers you may make a contribution in coach's name to: Seaside Scholarships, Seaside Kids Inc. or a charity of your choice.
