Seaside senior Westin Carter, right, was selected as the Cowapa League's Player of the Year.

Gulls, Valiants share soccer awards

The Astorian

The best of Cowapa League boys soccer came in pairs for the shortened 2021 spring season.

With 5-1 league records,

Seaside and Valley Catholic shared the league championship award; Player of the Year was Seaside's Westin Carter; Goalkeepers of the Year were Sam Brown, of Valley Catholic, and Riley Wunderlich, of Seaside; and Coaches of the Year were Seaside's John Chapman and Valley Catholic's Mike Chertude.

The Gulls also had 10 of their 11 starters earning all-league honors, to Valley Cath-olic's nine all-league players.

Banks and Tillamook, tied for last in the league standings with 1-5 records, had seven all-league selections each. Astoria did not field a varsity team.

Warrenton Warrior Livestream

Warrenton's Dawson Little pitched two shutout innings and also went 3-for-5 at the plate with three RBIs in a 10-9 extra-inning win at Ilwaco.

Warrenton wins at Ilwaco, 10-9

The Astorian

Ilwaco rallied from an early 7-0 deficit to send the game to extra innings, where Warrenton scored two runs in the top of the eighth and held on for a 10-9 victory over the Fishermen in a Junior Baseball game Thursday in Ilwaco.

The Warriors scored five runs on six hits in the first inning, with three doubles and a triple in their first five at-bats.

Ilwaco gradually chipped away at the lead and tied the game 8-8 after seven innings.

Warrenton's Tyson Smith had a double to lead off the eighth and advanced on a sacrifice by Nate Streibeck. From there, the Warriors scored two runs on Ilwaco errors.

The Fishermen scored one in the bottom of the eighth. Warrenton's Mike Ulness pitched four innings to pick up the win while Dawson Little threw two scoreless innings.

Little was also 3-for-5 at the plate and drove in three runs while Streibeck and Hordie Bodden had two RBIs apiece.

Warrenton hosts a doubleheader Monday at 4 p.m. with Knappa.

Pirates, Loggers split doubleheader

Neah-Kah-Nie and Knappa split a Junior Baseball doubleheader Thursday at Teevin Field, with the Pirates taking the first game 6-4, and the Loggers winning the second, 8-2.

Knappa's Kutter Ball and Treven Moreland each had triples, and Nick Rusinovich was 2-for-4 with a double in the opener.

Tanner Jackson was 3-for-4 with triples and Rusinovich had two more hits in the nightcap.

CLATSOP CARE HEALTH & REHABILITATION CENTER

An update from your local nursing home

As a not-for-profit community supported organization, it's very important to us to keep the community informed of what's happening in our facility. That's why we've decided to share updates each week in the local paper.

MASK UP FOR VISITATION

The CDC has recently announced that fully vaccinated people are safe to go in most indoor and outdoor spaces without masks. With that, many states have removed their mask mandates for various settings.

Please keep in mind that masks are still required at Clatsop Care Center. When you visit, please wear your mask at all times.

WORK WHERE YOU'RE VALUED

For over 40 years, Clatsop Care Center has been guided by these values: Dedication, Compassion, Community.

We selectively hire and train our staff, and actively engage them within the care environment. They take pride in providing the highest quality care to our residents and clients.
