League champion Banks dominated the spring 2021 Cowapa all-league football awards.

The Braves, who finished 4-0 in league, had the Cowapa's Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year (Charles White and Tyler Exline), while coach Cole Linehan shared the Coach of the Year award with Astoria's Howard Rub, whose team finished at 3-1 in league.

Banks had six players on the first team offense and five on first team defense.

Astoria's first team selections included senior receiver T.J. Colvin, senior offensive lineman Mike Berger and senior running back Michael Moore on offense; senior linemen Daniel Emerson-Palmer and Alexander Marincovich, senior defensive back Dylan Junes and junior defensive back Rocky Rub on defense. Junes was also the first team punter.

Seaside's first team members included Lawson Talamantez (junior, tight end), Andrew Teubner (senior, running back), Kaleb Bartel (junior, kicker) and for the second straight season, all three Seaside linebackers (Teubner, Talamantez and Tanner Kraushaar) made first team defense.

At the 3A level, the Coastal Range all-league team included every Warrenton starter, highlighted by Players of the Year Hordie Bodden Bodden and Sam Irwin.

In the 2A Northwest League, Knappa players gained 13 spots on the all-league team.

The upcoming East-West Shrine game on Aug. 7 in Baker City will include three local players on the West roster — Seaside's Teubner, Irwin of Warrenton and Knappa's Cameron Miethe.

The annual game, which makes its return after being canceled in 2020, showcases the top 1A-4A seniors in the state from the 2020-21 school year.

Knappa, Warrenton baseball split twinbill

The Astorian

In their first meeting in over a year, the Knappa and Warrenton baseball programs met up for a classic Logger-Warrior showdown Monday night at Huddleston Field.

With almost entirely new lineups since the last time they played, Knappa defeated Warrenton 7-4 in the league-counting first game, and the Warriors bounced back with a 14-4 victory in the second game.

The opener provided most of the excitement, as Knappa built a 2-0 lead in the second inning, before Warrenton took the lead with three runs in the fourth, highlighted by singles from Dawson Little and Kaison Smith and a run-scoring double from Ethan Caldwell.

Knappa answered with two runs in the fifth in the three in the sixth to put the game away.

Timely hits for the Loggers and six poorly-timed errors for Warrenton made the difference. "The Loggers) had a couple more exceptional plays, and made the plays defensively that we didn't," said Warrenton coach Lennie Wolfe. "They certainly earned the win."

Knappa had doubles from Nick Rusinovich, Drew Miller and Ash Baldwin, while Miller was hit by a pitch twice and picked up the win in relief on the mound.

Little and Dylan Atwood scattered eight hits with nine strikeouts and just one walk for Warrenton, but the Warrior errors were costly.

One out away from ending the top of the fifth with a 3-2 lead, an error in the outfield allowed Knappa to score two runs to retake the lead.

The Loggers loaded the bases in the top of the sixth, and scored runs on a bases loaded hit-by-pitch, a fielder's choice grounder by Kutter Ball and a wild pitch.

Atwood had a leadoff triple in the bottom of the sixth for Warrenton and later scored on a wild pitch, but Miller retired the final five batters he faced for the victory.

Starter Jaxon Dietrichs and Miller allowed just five hits, with six strikeouts and two walks.

Warrenton had 13 hits in the second game, which ended in the fifth inning.

In other Junior Baseball action Monday, Astoria Ford swept a pair of games from Tillamook, 6-0 and 7-6.

Astoria's Niko Boudreau tossed a complete-game, two-hit shutout in the opener, with 14 strikeouts and two walks.

Garrett Hillard scored on a passed ball to give Astoria Ford the walk-off victory in the second game.

Neah-Kah-Nie defeated Ilwaco, 8-6, to keep the Pirates in first place in the summer standings.
