Big-name country, rock singers headline county fair

ASTORIA — Anyway you want it, you might just dance at the Clatsop County Fair this weekend.

Country music and rock 'n' roll fans have the chance to see two big-name musicians perform at the fairgrounds Friday and Saturday night.

Christian country music artist Josh Turner, best known for his hit songs "Long Black Train," "Your Man," and "Why Don't We Just Dance," will be taking the stage on Friday with special guest Jessie Leigh.

Steve Augeri is an American rock singer who served as the lead vocalist for Journey from 1998 to 2006. The iconic rock band recorded "Remember Me," for the "Armageddon" soundtrack in 1998 with Augeri. On Saturday he'll perform material from his career as well as new songs featuring The Steve Augeri Band.
