Concert series returns to Astoria Library

ASTORIA — The Astoria Library has announced the return of the 10th Street Stage concert series.

The first concert is scheduled for Wednesday at 6 p.m. and will feature Brian Bovenizer and The New Old Stock.

Seaside to celebrate Promenade's 100th birthday

SEASIDE — A parade and ceremony will commemorate the centennial of the Seaside Promenade on Saturday.

The 1.5-mile Prom has become one of the most iconic coastal landmarks in the Pacific Northwest.

The Prom Centennial Parade will begin at 10 a.m. at 989 Broadway. The parade route will follow the historic location of Seaside's train station and continue west down Broadway to the Turnaround.

An official ceremony will take place at the Turnaround at 1 p.m. and will include speeches from Mayor Jay Barber and former mayors and community representatives. Officials will bury a time capsule and break a bottle of sea water to commemorate the milestone.

The public is invited to gather on the beach facing the Turnaround, which will serve as a stage for the ceremony. Those wishing to sit are advised to bring chairs or beach blankets.

Book signing and live music in Astoria

ASTORIA — Gulley's Butcher Shop will have a book signing and live music party with DeLores Richards' new book "Astoria Mysteries" and her song book "Music from My Heart" Saturday at 1 p.m.

Richards will play songs from "Music From My Heart," accompanied by a mandolin or fiddle. A donation drive will be held for the Astoria Warming Center with beef dogs for $2. All proceeds will go to the warming center.

Concert set for Saturday

David 'Papi' Fimbres

SEAVIEW — The Sou'wester Historic Lodge will host percussionist and multi-instrumentalist David "Papi" Fimbres for a concert from 8 to 9:30 p.m. on Saturday at the lodge, 3728 J Place.

The show will be open to all ages and free to watch.
