

Liberty hosts trio in festival this week

Livestream option will be available for ticket holders

ASTORIA — Grammy-nominated instrumentalists and Oregon Coast favorites, Hermitage Piano Trio are performing at the Liberty Theatre this week, with concerts running through Sunday.

The group will be joined by several special guests. A full lineup is available on the Liberty Theatre's website.

As the Liberty Theatre brings live music back to the stage, a livestream viewing option is being introduced to ticket holders. Patrons who are unable to attend will have the option to watch the performance on a livestream through Facebook.

Traditional Oregon artists can self-nominate for $5,000 stipends

SALEM — The Oregon Folklife Network and Oregon Arts Commission have opened the call for self-nominations for the Traditional Arts Recovery Program.

Oregon traditional artists who would like to be considered for the Traditional Arts Recovery Program may self-nominate between now and Aug. 31.

The program will provide stipends of $5,000 to 15 Oregon traditional artists for the creation of new work. Eligible artists will use a range of art forms to represent and express Oregon's diverse ethnic, sacred, occupational and regional cultural arts.

Traditional artists who would like to be considered should email Emily Hartlerode, associate
