Warriors, Loggers and Blue Jays volleyball squads score wins

The Astorian

It was sweep night for Clatsop County volleyball teams.

While Astoria and Seaside suffered defeats Tuesday,

Warrenton, Knappa and Jewell all scored easy victories.

Valley Catholic left the Brick House with a 25-15, 25-9, 25-12 win over the Lady Fishermen; and Tillamook defeated the Gulls 25-18, 25-18, 25-20.

Warrenton swept Taft (25-5, 25-14, 25-18); Knappa moved into second place in the Northwest League standings with a sweep over Columbia Christian (25-3, 25-11, 25-4); and Jewell got past Falls City (25-4, 25-5, 25-10).

Jamie Annat led Warrenton with 10 kills and 15 digs, and 13-for-13 from the service line. London O'Brien added three blocks.

"We have been talking about limiting the unforced errors and we did a good job of that," said Warrenton coach Staci Miethe, whose team is ranked seventh. "We only missed five serves. We also did a good job of spreading the offense and getting everyone involved."

At Knappa, Ava Skipper had 12 ace serves for the Loggers.

OBITUARIES

Marilyn Frances (Marsh) Barnard Warrenton April 5, 1939 — Sept. 22, 2021

Marilyn Frances (Marsh) Barnard died peacefully at her home in Warrenton surrounded by family. She was 82.

Marilyn was born on April 5, 1939, to Charles and Frances (McNelly) Marsh, in Long Beach, Washington. Her mother went into labor early, and it was feared she would be born on the ferry en route to be delivered by her grandfather, Dr. Horatio Marsh.

Marilyn grew up in Warrenton, and was a 1957 graduate of Warrenton High School. In 1959, she met Howard "Barney" Barnard, a sailor stationed at the Tongue Point Naval Air Station, at the Liberty Theatre. They married in Astoria in 1961.

Over the course of Barney's naval career, she lived in Bremerton, Washington, New Orleans, San Diego and Honolulu, much of that time raising her kids while Barney was at sea or serving along the inland waterways of Vietnam.

Marilyn moved back to Warrenton just before Barney retired from the U.S. Navy. She stayed home to raise her children, and helped raise a dozen more as a child care provider until her youngest was in middle school. She then worked for several years at Johnson Drug Store in Warrenton until it closed in the early 1990s.

She was very active in the community, serving as a volunteer for various activities involving her children, including Cub Scouts, Little League and supporting dance recitals, swim teams and the Warrenton Boosters. She was active in Take off Pounds Sensibly (TOPS), the Warrenton First Baptist Church and choir and the Red Hat Ladies.

In their retirement, Barney and Marilyn enjoyed visiting family and friends from their Navy days, and outings and visits with grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her infectious smile will be missed by all who knew her.

Marilyn is survived by her son, Michael Barnard; her daughter, Patti Rhodes, and son-in-law, James Rhodes; son, Steven Barnard; grandson, Colton Harper; granddaughter, Sarah Rhodes; granddaughter, Lauren Barnard; grandson, Joshua Barnard and his wife, Taylor Barnard; granddaughter, Andrea Jean-Barnard; great-grandson, Caden Barnard; great-granddaughter, Cassidy Barnard; great-grandsons, Connor and Colin Barnard; sisters-in-law, Wanda Tassin, Carolyn Crabtree and Artis Strunk; brother-in-law, Jim Strunk; and numerous nephews and nieces and friends.

She is preceded in death by her father; mother; brother, Ronald Marsh; sister-in-law, Betty Marsh; sister-in-law, Linda Rowe; brother-in-law, Lloyd Tassin; brother-in-law, Dwain Crabtree; and brother-in-law, Tommy Rowe.

A graveside interment will be held at Ocean View Cemetery at 1 p.m. on Oct. 16, followed by a memorial service and potluck at 3 p.m. at Warrenton First Baptist Church to celebrate his life.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Lower Columbia Hospice, 2111 Exchange St., Astoria, OR, 97103, who took amazing care to comfort her and her family in her final days.

Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Please sign the online guest book at caldwellsmortuary.com

Felix Darwin Wilcoxon Jewell Nov. 30, 1930 — Sept. 22, 2021

Felix Darwin Wilcoxon, of Jewell, passed away on Sept. 22, 2021, in Astoria. He was 90.

Darwin was born to Felix and Edna (Curteman) Wilcoxon in Clatskanie on Nov. 30, 1930. He grew up and spent his entire life in Jewell. He attended Vinemapple and Jewell elementary schools and graduated from Jewell High School.

Just prior to his service in the U.S. Army, he married Elizabeth Vincent in May 1951. He served in occupied Japan and Korea from 1951 to 1953. After discharge, he and Elizabeth made their home in Jewell on Cow Creek.

Darwin grew up in the logging culture of the Jewell area and went on to work with his father and brother, Donald, and to work for himself and for others. He felled timber and held other logging related jobs. He also was a contract bear trapper for the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife and private timber companies in the 1960s.

Leisure time was filled with trapping, hunting, fishing and other outdoor activities. He was active in play days with his horse in earlier years; enjoyed planning and tending an extensive garden; took great pride in the upkeep of his yard and house; and developed a passion for rock collecting, cutting and polishing. The annual July 4 picnic at his house was well planned and enthusiastically attended by family and friends.

He was preceded in death by Elizabeth, his wife of 61 years; his parents; and his brother, Donald. He is survived by his brother, Dennis (Susan) Wilcoxon; his sister-in-law, Gleva Wilcoxon; numerous cousins, nieces and nephews and a wide circle of friends.

A private graveside service was held at the Jewell Cemetery on Saturday. Donations may be made to the charity of your choice. A celebration of life will be planned for a later date.

Excellence in challenging conditions. ★★★★★
Diane G.
I saw the highest standard of health safety practices in effect during my hygienist appointment today—much higher precautions than I'd seen in a local hospital when having tests last month. The new sanitation equipment and attention to patient safety at Klemp Family Dentistry is in keeping with a dental practice I consider cutting edge with respect to all my dental needs. It's wonderful having a world class dental practice here at the coast, one where I can have procedures performed for which I used to have to travel to a specialist in Portland. I have been a patient of several local dentists in the past, but none had the skill and, more importantly, the attention to patient comfort that Dr. Klemp provides.
