

Virtual talk focuses on North Coast shipwreck

The Clatsop County Genealogical Society is hosting a presentation Friday at 1 p.m. by historian and genealogist Mel Bashore about the shipwreck of the Rosecrans in 1913.

Bashore will focus on the seamen who died on the ship when it floundered on Peacock Spit, just below Cape Disappointment. Of the 34 seamen aboard the ship, 29 were killed.

Bashore's presentation will include visuals and research on some of the people who lost their lives in the tragedy. The link to the virtual session can be found on the Clatsop County Genealogical Society's website under the "meetings and calendar" tab.

Wildlife Center hosts virtual fundraiser

ASTORIA — The Wildlife Center of the North Coast will hold its annual Founder's Event virtually Sunday.

The annual fundraiser helps raise critical funds needed to keep the Wildlife Center's doors open to every wild animal in need of care. The Wildlife Center is a registered 501(c)(3) and is the only wildlife hospital serving the north Oregon and south Washington coasts.

Tickets to the event are $15 for single admission and $100 for a virtual table of eight people. All ticketed attendees receive five entries into the door prize drawing that will take place during the livestreamed event Sunday at 6 p.m. The silent auction is open now and will conclude during the live event.

KALA set to host author talk Friday

ASTORIA — KALA will present a First Person: Authors Talk featuring author Melissa Eskue Ousley Friday night at 8 p.m.

The presentation is part of KALA's monthly interview show featuring conversation about all things writerly. Host Heather Hirschi will interview Eskue Ousley live on the KALA stage, with questions from the audience and a few surprises.

Eskue Ousley's sixth novel, "A Constellation of Scars," is a finalist in the 2021 International Book

Awards. Her suspense novel, "Pitcher Plant" won a 2018 Independent

Publisher Book Award. Her young adult novel, "Sunset Empire," debuted in a best-selling boxed set.

Doors open at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $15 and can be purchased in advance at brownpapertickets.com.

Proof of vaccination or a negative COVID-19 test result is required. Limited capacity will be maintained to allow for social distancing. KALA is located at 1017 Marine Dr. in Astoria.
