GIRLS SOCCER

Late scores by Banks force tie with Astoria

A stunning tie is the only way to describe Monday night's Cowapa League girls soccer game at CMH Field, which ended in a 2-2 deadlock.

For the most part, Astoria thoroughly dominated Banks, and the Lady Fishermen held a 2-0 lead through 76 minutes.

But, with 3:21 remaining, a missed clear by Astoria left an open lane for Banks freshman Kimara Witham, who scored from close range for the Braves' first goal.

Just over a minute later, Witham split two defenders and found herself alone on a breakaway, and scored the game-tying goal with just 2:03 remaining.

Neither team scored in the final two minutes, and the Braves left with an improbable 2-2 tie.

Valiants 1, Seaside 0

No. 7-ranked Valley Catholic snapped a 0-0 tie with a goal in the 65th minute Monday night at Seaside's Broadway Field, the only goal in the Valiants' 1-0 win over the Gulls in a Cowapa League girls soccer game.

"We put good pressure on them at the end but couldn't find the net," said Seaside coach Dave Rouse, whose team (3-3 in league) remained in third place behind the Valiants (6-0) and Astoria (3-1-2).

BOYS SOCCER

Banks blanks Astoria, 3-0

Banks took 15 shots on goal in the first half, scoring twice on its way to a 3-0 win over Astoria, in a Cowapa League boys soccer match Monday at CMH Field.

Cole Crossen scored into an open net 15 minutes, 58 seconds into the game, and teammate Cruz Mendola tacked on a second goal with just 12 seconds left in the first half for a 2-0 lead at the break.

In between, Astoria goalkeeper Salvador Wienecke made 11 saves to keep the Fishermen within striking distance.

Astoria managed just one shot on goal in the second half, a narrow miss by Owen Williams.

Graysen Voss of Banks stole an Astoria pass and scored unassisted 6:54 into the second half for the third goal.

In other Cowapa League action, sixth-ranked Valley Catholic scored a 1-0 win over Seaside at the Warrenton Soccer Complex.

The Valiants improved to 5-0 in league play.

Knappa volleyball wins at Nestucca

Knappa posted a four-game win Monday at Nestucca, 25-8, 25-16, 19-25, 25-21.

It was the first victory at Nestucca since Oct. 9, 2012, for the Loggers, who are in a three-team race for third place in the Northwest League, with two matches remaining.

Knappa's Hannah Dietrichs, Ariana Miller and Ava Skipper combined for 20 kills, while Carlie Casper and Lily Simpson teamed up to hit 20-for-20 serves.

The Loggers (9-5 in league) host Mannahouse Christian (1-12) Thursday, then finish the regular season Saturday at No. 1-ranked Gaston.

Vernonia tops Warrenton

The ninth-ranked team at the 2A level hosted the ninth-ranked 3A team Tuesday night, as Vernonia and Warrenton hooked up in a nonleague match at Vernonia.

And the 2A Loggers scored a sweep, 25-16, 25-17, 25-22 over the Warriors, who have three road matches in three days this week.

A kill by Jamie Annat had Warrenton ahead 8-6 in the first set, but Vernonia snapped a tie at 12-12 by going on a 4-0 run.

Vernonia did not trail again, jumping out to leads of 10-1 in the second set and 11-2 in the third.

Mooks rally for win over Astoria

Astoria won the first two sets, but the rest of the night belonged to Tillamook, which rallied for a five-game win, 19-25, 19-25, 25-15, 25-15, 15-2, in Cowapa League volleyball action Monday.

A BLAST FROM THE PAST

In the 2016 "Ducks at the Beach" golf event, held at the Astoria Golf & Country Club, two of the participants were former Oregon Duck lineman Cole Linehan and a young Seaside golfer named Carson Kawasoe.

The two just happened to be in the same foursome that day.

Fast forward to 2021. Linehan is the head football coach of the sixth-ranked Banks Braves, who happen to be hosting 15th-ranked Seaside this Friday — the same Gulls team quarterbacked by Kawasoe.

Both teams come in undefeated (2-0) in league play, and the outcome could decide the eventual Cowapa League champion. Banks is 5-1 overall, and has outscored opponents 165-72; Seaside is 4-1 and has outscored its opponents 202-44.

Q: What should I use to clean my baby's teeth?

A: Remember baby's teeth are not only important, but part of their health and development. Cleaning baby's teeth can be done by gauze, a finger swipe, or a small brush. Make it quick and fun!! Remember that a night-time bottle with milk has lactose (milk sugar) and juice has fructose or sucrose (sugar) and if it sits on teeth day after day, problems are going to develop. Baby teeth are small with thin enamel, so they are important to keep clean.

OBITUARIES

Kreed Gene Tibbitts Secord
March 22, 2021 — March 24, 2021

Kreed Gene Tibbitts Secord was born March 22, 2021, to his loving parents, Nicole Tibbitts and Trey Secord. He was immediately loved by so many, including his big brother, Link Reed.

Kreed was born with a rare congenital heart defect known as hypoplastic left heart syndrome. Kreed bravely lost his battle after his first open heart surgery on March 24, 2021, due to HLHS, which remains one of the most high-risk congenital heart diseases.

Kreed may not have had the chance to take his first steps, to say his first words, play with his older brother or many other moments we wish so dearly that he could have had.

Kreed impacted so many lives in his short time here with us. We miss him so very much, though we are thankful for the time we had with him.

Because of him, we will tell others we love them more often, we will hug a little tighter, we will be more compassionate to others struggles and spend more time with our loved ones.

Our hearts ache without him, but we find comfort in knowing he is being taken care of in heaven by his aunt, Mikaela Garner, and his uncles, Trevor Gene Secord and Daniel Williams.

For those who are reading this who didn't know Kreed in this life — we ask that next time you feel sunshine on your face, you think of our sweet baby boy, whose life wasn't nearly as long as we wish it could've been, and share that sunshine with your loved ones who are still physically here with you.

For Kreed's family, next time you stop and feel or listen for your heartbeat, remember part of his will be beating alongside yours too. We ask you to imagine his perfect little smile running around, playing in the sand, probably making jokes like his mom and dad.

Kreed is survived by his parents, big brother, Link, and many grandparents, aunts, uncles and sweet little cousins.

We would like to thank the doctors and nurses who tried their hardest to save and comfort our precious little boy. We would also like to thank our loved ones, who have helped us along this journey no parent should ever have to face.

We love you so much, Kreed. Thank you for you.

"World's Strongest Little Man": We are having a candle lighting in memory of Kreed on Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. at Columbia Beach, Access Area D, Fort Stevens State Park in Hammond.

Dennis Saub
Vancouver, Washington
June 26, 1952 — Sept. 26, 2021

Dennis Saub, 69, of Vancouver, Washington, peacefully passed away Sept. 26, 2021, after a long fight against chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.

He was born June 26, 1952, to Clarence and Lucy Saub.

He is survived by his daughter, Jennifer, and her husband, Mike; sons, Ryan and Eric; grandchildren, Azalea, Zachery, Magnolia, Madelyn and Joshua; brother, Larry Saub; and sister, Karen, and her husband, Ron Grimm.

Having spent most of his life in the Portland area, Dennis lived on the East Coast for a while, where he started his career with the federal government before returning to the Pacific Northwest.

Denny enjoyed fishing, camping, exploring and spending time with family and friends. He was known for his big heart, sense of humor and his stubborn ways. We were all blessed to have him in our lives, even though he left us too soon.
