

Arts council will hold virtual summit Saturday

ASTORIA — The Arts Council of Clatsop County will hold the second annual Arts Summit, designed to support, educate and inspire working artists, local arts organizations and other stakeholders.

The summit, “Art Works!,” will take place virtually from 12:30 to 5 p.m. Saturday.

The summit includes five workshops led by industry professionals focused on topics like understanding copyright issues, becoming a professional, finding funding, navigating online options and developing a business plan.

Attendees are welcome to join any and all workshops. The event is free but pre-registration is requested. Learn more at clatsopartssummit.org.

Storyteller will present dark tales at KALA

Will Hornyak will share Gaelic stories in Astoria to celebrate the festival of Samhain.

ASTORIA — Master Storyteller Will Hornyak will present “Mostly Grimm: Tales from the Darkest Side of the Brother’s Collected Stories,” at KALA Art Gallery to celebrate Samhain Friday night.

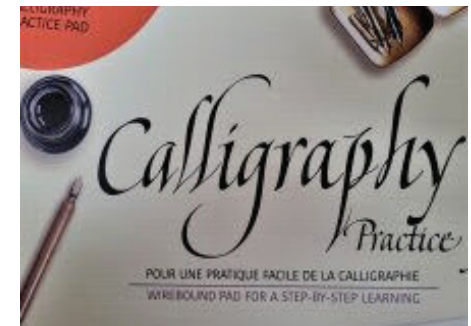

Samhain is a Gaelic festival marking the end of the harvest season and beginning of winter or “darker-half” of the year. Hornyak will weave together an oral presentation that includes Irish myths, Russian fairytales, Mexican folktales and Oregon tall tales to celebrate the occasion.

Hornyak has performed throughout the United States and been a featured teller at the National Storytelling Festival in Jonesborough, Tennessee.

Doors will open at 7 p.m., the performance starts at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $15 and can be purchased in advance at brownpapertickets.com. The show is for mature audiences, age 14 and older.

Audience members must show proof of vaccination or negative COVID test. Masks required, limited capacity to ensure socially distanced seating. KALA performance space is located at 1017 Marine Dr. in Astoria.

Astoria Art Loft introduces fall calligraphy classes

ASTORIA — The Astoria Art Loft is launching a fall calligraphy class series beginning Oct. 30.

The class, taught by Mary K. Barndse-Adams, will help participants learn uppercase and lowercase letters, as well as numbers in a form that can be extended to more intricate and complicated styles.

The four-session class costs $50 and will take place from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Oct. 30 and Nov. 6, 13 and 20.

Basic supplies will be provided. For information, visit astoriaartloft.com
