

Piano trio returns to Astoria

ASTORIA — The Hermitage Piano Trio will return to Astoria's Liberty Theatre in November for a special, newly announced bonus performance.

The ensemble will perform one night only, on Nov. 16 at 7 p.m. Tickets range from $15 to $35.

The Hermitage Piano Trio is comprised of Sergey Antonov on cello, Ilya Kazantsev on piano and Misha Keylin on violin. Descending from the great Russian musical tradition, the Hermitage Piano Trio is distinguished by its exuberant musicality, interpretative range and sumptuous sound.

Based in the United States, the trio has performed for audiences on major chamber music series in Los Angeles, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Tucson, Portland, Mexico and New Orleans.

Heritage museum hosts art auction

ILWACO, Wash. — Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum is hosting an "Out the Window Art Auction" to benefit the museum.

The auction is open now and continues until Nov. 13 at 10 p.m. The modified art auction will help provide funding for museum operations while showcasing local artwork from the community.

Artists from around the region have donated original works with the theme "Out the Window," and more than 60 works will be displayed in the museum's special exhibit gallery. During that time, bids can be placed in person at the museum or online by going to the website, fundraiser.bid/cphm.

The museum is open Wednesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Raffle tickets are available for purchase at the museum for $20, and the winner will receive an original signed silver print by the late Dirk Sweringen, donated by his estate.
