

Coaster Theatre hosts musical duo

CANNON BEACH — The Coaster Theatre Playhouse welcomes the soulful sounds of Adams & Costello at 7:30 p.m. Saturday as part of the Stormy Weather Arts Festival weekend.

Tickets are $20 and can be purchased at the theater box office, or online at coaster-theatre.com. Space is limited and seats will be socially distanced by groups.

West Coaster Julie Adams meets New Englander Michael Costello in this synergistic guitar and vocal duo. Costello's love of roots music combines with Adams' strong draw to driving rhythms. Based in Oregon and regulars on the North Coast music scene, they perform and record together regularly in a blend of visceral songs and emotional performances.

Adams & Costello will perform at the Coaster Theatre Saturday.

Patrons must show proof that they are fully vaccinated when they enter the Coaster Theatre. Those unable to be vaccinated must provide proof of a negative COVID-19 PCR test taken within 72 hours of the performance start time in addition to a matching photo ID. Face coverings are required at all times for everyone inside the theater regardless of vaccination status.

CANNON BEACH — The Stormy Weather Arts Festival will be held this weekend in Cannon Beach.

The festival is returning for its 34th year, and is one of the town's biggest events. This year's featured festival artist is Randall David Tipton, who had his first solo show at White Bird Gallery in 1987.

The festival will include a variety of safe gatherings, artist demonstrations, painting classes and live musical performances with regional musicians at outdoor venues throughout the town.

The 2021 schedule includes, but is not limited to:

Paint and Sip Friday and Saturday 6 to 9 p.m. in the Chamber Community Hall, $40 per person.

Music around town from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday at the Coaster Theatre courtyard, Kiki's courtyard, Sandpiper Square and The Landing.

The Stormy Weather Arts Festival will hold multiple Paint and Sip events.

Gallery showings will take place around town Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
